This document outlines the current duties required of the post holder at this level of responsibility. It is not a comprehensive or exclusive list, and from time to time duties may be varied, which do not change the level of responsibility or general character of the job. This profile also needs to be read in conjunction with the generic job profile for classroom teachers.

This profile is current at the date shown, but, in consultation with you, may be changed by the Headteacher to reflect or anticipate changes in the job commensurate with the grade and job title.

Personal Contacts:

External: Contractors, suppliers, parent and relevant health professionals

Internal: Students, staff, Governors, parents and any other visitors to the school

Context:

All teachers are role models to pupils within the school and at all times the values, vision and ethos of the school must be evident in their attitude and behaviour.

In order to promote and achieve the school vision and purpose the teacher should meet the core (C) standards as per the National Professional Standards for Teachers in England from September 2007.

The Job-holder will ensure that Lea Manor High School's policies are reflected in all aspects of his/her work, in particular those relating to; Equal Opportunities, Health and Safety, Data Protection Act(1984, 1998)

This job profile needs to be read in conjunction with the generic job description for teachers.

We are committed to working in wider partnership which will promote wellbeing outcomes for young people.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN

Context:

All teaching staff are part of a whole school team. They are required to support the values and ethos of the school and school priorities as defined in the School Development Plan. This will mean focussing on the needs of colleagues, parents and pupils and being flexible in a busy pressurised environment.

Because of the nature of this job, it will be necessary for the appropriate level of criminal record disclosure to be undertaken. Therefore, it is essential in making your application you disclose whether you have any pending charges, convictions, bind-overs or cautions and, if so, for which offences. This post will be exempt from the provisions of Section 4 (2) of the Rehabilitation of Offenders 1974 (Exemptions) (Amendments) Order 1986. Therefore, applicants are not entitled to withhold information about convictions which for other purposes are 'spent' under the provision of the Act, and, in the event of the employment being taken up; any failure to disclose such convictions will result in dismissal or disciplinary action by the school. The fact that a pending charge, conviction, bind-over or caution has been recorded against you will not necessarily debar you from consideration for this appointment. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers.

'The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment'.
