

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position: Piano Teacher

Start Date: As soon as possible

Working Hours: To be confirmed with the school (term-time only)

Session Rate: £40 per hour

Contract Basis: Self-employed via Service Level Agreement (not a school employee)

Ruislip High School is seeking a talented, enthusiastic, and dedicated piano teacher to join our Music Department as soon as possible. This opportunity is ideal for a gifted professional who is passionate about music education and committed to inspiring a love of music in students of all abilities.

About the Role

We are proud to offer high-quality musical tuition to our students, delivering diverse and cultural musical experiences that reflect the community we serve. The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching students ranging from beginners to advanced Grade 8 standard, utilising a varied repertoire and pedagogy to engage learners. The role will be conducted under a Service Level Agreement with the school. Please note that the successful applicant will not be employed by the school but will operate on a self-employed basis.

Person Specification

We are looking for a professional who demonstrates the following:

- A gifted and committed musician with a passion for music education.
- Proven experience teaching piano to a wide range of levels (Beginner to Grade 8).
- The ability to inspire a love of music in all students through varied pedagogy.
- Excellent verbal communication skills and the ability to build rapport with young people.
- A commitment to diversity and representation within music education.
- Reliability, professionalism, and the ability to work independently within a school setting.
- Experience of preparing students for GCSE, A level and ABRSM examinations.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide high-quality one-to-one piano tuition to students.
- Adhere to the school's safeguarding procedures and participate in required training.
- Maintain a professional and positive presence, reflecting the values and ethos of Ruislip High School at all times.
- Liaise with the Music Department regarding student progress and scheduling.
- Prepare students for GCSE, A level and ABRSM examinations.
