

Thank you for your interest in the SEN Teaching Assistant position

Proud to be part of the St Teresa of Calcutta Multi Academy Company

Welcome from our Head Teacher

Thank you for your interest in applying for the temporary role of Teaching Assistant at Archbishop Ilsey Catholic School.

Our ethos is about our pupils (and staff) “letting (their) light shine.” We want pupils to believe in themselves, be aspirational and strive to fulfil their vocation, whatever that may be. This is where you come in. Your role will be to support pupils with SEND in classrooms, but also offer some pastoral support, deliver interventions and work as a part of our wider pastoral team. You must be multi-skilled and capable of juggling a range of tasks.

This will be a demanding role. No two days will be the same!

Does this sound appealing? If so, we look forward to receiving your application.

Message from our new Assistant Head Teacher in charge of Inclusion (SENCO)

Dear potential applicant

As a Catholic School, we believe every child is unique and has God given talents and this is what drives our SEND offer. We set the highest expectations and we strive for all our pupils to be able to realise their potential.

As a Teaching Assistant your primary focus is to ensure that pupils with SEND make good academic progress as well as receive the adapted pastoral care they require in order to thrive. Building relationships with staff, families and pupils is a crucial element of the role. There may be the opportunity to work one-to-one with one of our pupils who has an Educational Health Care Plan (EHCP).

Every day will be different as a Teaching Assistant. When pupils arrive at school each and every day, there is always a new challenge, and this is something that must excite you. You must be really organised and support me, our new SEND Champion and your colleagues in our Learning Resource Centre (LRC) and the wider pastoral team, using your own initiative.

If you can demonstrate the key character virtues we stand by, and are ready to join this crucial department of the school to allow pupils to let their light shine, you will be the perfect candidate.

I look forward to reading your application.

Emma Tonry
