

Personal Specification

Teacher of Food Technology

Requirements	Essential/ Desirable
QTS or ECT	Essential
Ability to teach Food Technology to KS3/4	Essential
Ability to teach other DT specialisms	Essential
Excellent communication skills, both written and oral	Essential
A proven record of excellent standards and expectations	Essential
A willingness to support the development of the department	Essential
The ability to plan and deliver high quality lessons	Essential
Effective use of ICT with an ability to use relevant technology and equipment	Essential
Professional approach and dress	Essential
Ability and willingness to work under the guidance of senior staff	Essential
Ability to work in a busy environment and meet deadlines	Essential
An appreciation of the school environment and the social and learning needs of pupils	Essential
An ability to support staff in the use of resources and information	Essential
Excellent organisational skills and an ability to work with others	Essential
A willingness to work within the school's guidelines and procedures	Essential
A willingness to undertake all training as required	Essential
High attention to detail	Essential
Ability and willingness to follow instructions	Essential
Ability to motivate pupils and achieve excellent results	Essential
Excellent attendance, punctuality and organisation	Essential
The ability to form positive working relationships with staff and pupils	Essential
Ability to communicate effectively with staff, parents/guardians and pupils	Essential
A willingness to work with external agencies where required	Essential
Understands confidentiality and working in line with GDPR requirements	Essential
A commitment to the welfare and safeguarding of children and young people	Essential
A commitment to equal opportunities	Essential