

Become a Governor with Focus-Trust

Governors play an important role in creating great schools at the heart of our communities. Focus-Trust is seeking volunteer governors to support our schools across Oldham, Rochdale, Cheshire West and Chester, Kirklees, Trafford, Bradford, and Tameside.

We welcome governors from a diverse range of backgrounds and experiences and with a broad set of skills and knowledge. At the moment, we are particularly interested in applicants with experience of finance, operations, HR and operations. However, there are no set qualifications for becoming a governor and you will receive all the training and support needed to fulfil the role.

Our Support

- ◆ Full induction programme
- ◆ Ongoing professional development, training and support
- ◆ Free membership to the National Governors Association (NGA) and GovernorHub
- ◆ Trust-wide forums and events
- ◆ The opportunity to collaborate with great, dedicated professionals from across the education and wider sectors

Your commitment

- ◆ A passion for supporting others and giving back to the community
- ◆ Attendance of six meetings and a school visit each year
- ◆ Adhering to our governor code of conduct and safeguarding standards
