Teacher of Science

Required September 2026

The role

We are seeking a charismatic, dynamic and highly motivated practitioner to join our Science Team. All students study triple science at GCSE and are taught by teachers within their specialist area. All three science specialisms are offered at A-Level.

The successful candidate will be an outstanding practitioner or if new to the profession, will have the potential to be so, by being passionate and driven to support the students on their journey through the curriculum.

He/she will make a genuine commitment and input positive contributions within the science department, pushing to achieve great results and increase engagement from the pupils. He/she will create stimulating and enriching lesson plans throughout all key stages inspiring the students in their study and their mastery of mathematics.

Our School

Shenfield High School is a standalone 11-18 Academy with a comprehensive ethos and commitment to high academic standards supported by a significant investment in pastoral care and wellbeing.

The school is conveniently located close to Shenfield mainline station on the line into London Liverpool Street and home to the eastern terminus of the new cross rail Elizabeth Line.

We can offer you:

- Outer Fringe allowance
- A 'Golden Hello' if you are a direct applicant to the school
- Private GP service
- Employee Assistance programme
- Access to a fully equipped fitness suite
- Continuous CPD programme
- Discounted childcare during half-term breaks
- Supportive onboarding

If you would like an informal discussion about this position and/or a pre-application visit please contact the HR Manager: e.kirk@shenfield.essex.sch.uk

The Governing Body is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share in this commitment. This appointment is subject to an enhanced disclosure check and positive references.

Teaching and Learning

Teachers are expected to:

- Plan and prepare schemes of work, courses and lessons, which provide students with the opportunity to achieve their individual potential.
- Teach, according to their educational needs, the students assigned to him/her. This involves setting and marking work for the students to complete in school and elsewhere.
- Assess, record and report on the development, progress and attainment of students.
- Organise and participate in extracurricular activities, where appropriate.
- Ensure the effective deployment of classroom support.
- Monitor and support the overall progress and development of students.
- Contribute to raising standards of student attainment/achievement.
- Apply the Behaviour for Learning Policy so that effective learning for all can take place.
- Maintain an environment which is conducive to learning.

Assessing and Reporting

Teachers are expected to:

- Provide or contribute to oral and written assessments, reports and references relating to individual students and groups of students.
- Maintain accurate and up to date student records.
- Track student progress and use the data to inform teaching.

Standards and Quality Assurance

Teachers are expected to:

- Support the aims, ethos and values of the school
- Be aware of national developments relevant to subject and current best practice.
- Undertake lesson observations as part of the department observation schedule and professional development arrangements.
- Promote and model good relationships with pupils, colleagues and parents.
- Set a good example in terms of dress, punctuality and attendance.
- Uphold the school's behaviour code and uniform regulations.
- Participate in staff training and take a lead in own professional development.

SHENFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

ABOUT US

Shenfield High School is a standalone 11-18 Academy with a comprehensive ethos and a commitment to high academic standards supported by a significant investment in pastoral care and wellbeing.

We offer a broad and rich curriculum from years 7 to 13 with a full commitment to the traditional academic, creative and the physical. Our reputation for sport, both elite and recreational and for our creative arts is second to none for a state comprehensive school. Through the efforts of our highly engaged staff the curriculum runs strongly through into the extracurricular with clubs and activities offered in all areas.

The whole school community has devoted significant time in the most recent years revisiting the school values and the House System.

SUPPORT

Our greatest asset is our staff, 'Team Shenners'. Our teaching staff are very experienced and committed to Shenfield High School and they are complimented by a group of newer entrants to the profession who bring fresh ideas and energy to the school. The teaching team works hand in hand with the highly qualified and experienced support staff who are integral to the daily functioning of the school.

At Shenfield High School we recognise that starting at a new school whether a new entrant to the profession or more experienced can feel daunting and comes with added pressure. The evaluation extract below highlights some of the key actions taken this year in support of staff wellbeing:

Shenfield High School is a strong community of staff, students, and their parents. Parents are very supportive of the school and recognise the uniqueness of some of the opportunities their children are afforded by attending the school.

As a standalone academy it is our governing body that works in partnership with the Headteacher and senior team in setting the strategic direction of the school. Our governors come from a variety of backgrounds and professions and are very supportive of the school. On the following page you can find an overview of our strategic framework that highlights our key focus areas for the years ahead
