The Oxfordshire Hospital School is an all through maintained special school with a special responsibility for preparing the young people we teach for their futures, whatever they may bring and regardless of the challenges that face them. OHS is a school where time is precious and where every learning opportunity must count. All teaching at our school is 1:1 or in small groups and is entirely personalised and pupil-focussed.

We are looking for a highly committed, positive and skilled secondary phase teacher of Science to join and enhance our dedicated team of staff. This is an exciting professional development opportunity for a secondary specialist teacher who is an excellent classroom practitioner from either a mainstream or special provision background and who is passionate about teaching science to young people who have medical needs.

Initially the post will be in our Outreach Teaching team. Our staff are all subject to redeployment across all of our settings according to pupil need. The successful candidate will be passionate about teaching young people who have medical needs, including mental health, and have a desire to reduce educational disadvantage caused by ill health. Flexibility is important within the school so the ability to teach other subjects where need arises is also desirable.

Full support and appropriate training is available to help the successful candidate settle into the school team.

We would encourage and warmly welcome enquiries and will try to accommodate visits as best we can. Please contact Eva Marino, School Business Manager on eva.marino@ohs.oxon.sch.uk or tel 01865 957480 should you require any further information.

Full details are on our website at <https://ohs.oxon.sch.uk/about-us/vacancies/>.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare and safety of children and young people and promoting equality of opportunity. Our Safeguarding Policy can be found on our website at <https://ohs.oxon.sch.uk/information/policies-documents/>.
