Teaching Assistant

(Early Years)

Full Time – Permanent – Grade B (initially with progression available)

An exciting and rare opportunity has arisen to join our school.

- We are a two form entry school with exceptional facilities: Three large classroom spaces per year group, well-equipped intervention rooms, library, music room, art suite, NEST, sensory room, separate meeting areas, orchard, wildlife garden, children's kitchen, Forest School, onsite social worker, 39 place Nursery.
- Our site brings together two exceptional spaces: a super-modern Early Years building designed for bright, open learning, and a characterful Victorian KS1 building full of charm and history.
- Our curriculum and learning environment is meticulously planned with continuous provision used throughout the school. We teach British Sign Language and French from Nursery.

Please view our website for more information and photographs of our school.
