Our mission at E-ACT Parkwood Academy is to create a culture where both individual and collective success are achieved. Established in the 1950s as Herries School, it became Parkwood High School in 2000 and transitioned to academy status in 2009. In 2013, the school joined the E-ACT trust, expanding its reach within a large multi-academy network. We maintain strong ties with the local Sheffield community through partnerships with businesses, primary schools, and local cultural and sporting initiatives, providing students with work experience, career opportunities, and community engagement. This ensures a well-rounded, supportive educational experience.

➤ Our Culture

At E-Act Parkwood we have a shared vision of Everyone Exceptional Everyday. This vision is one that spreads into our community, and we are unapologetic about our duty of care and obligation to positively impact our wider community. A significant number of our E-Act Parkwood staff have developed their careers from entry level jobs right through to Middle and Senior Leadership posts whilst at the school. This shows investment and commitment to our staff body, prioritising retention and development of staff, over recruitment.

➤ Our Benefits

At E-Act Parkwood we are fortunate to be part of a big family of E-Act schools. This creates opportunities for professional and career development opportunities as well as having access to our own suite of CPD qualifications with the trust and other fully funded external courses and qualifications like the NPQ's.

➤ Values, Ethos and how we work in the Trust?

At the heart of everything we do are our core values – 'Ambition, Respect, Collaboration and Honesty'.

Ambition: Having the desire, determination, and drive to succeed. Seeking opportunities for growth and development, setting goals to clearly define what needs to be achieved. Taking positive steps towards aspirations and delivering results.

Respect: Recognising, understanding, and celebrating differences. Actively listening and appreciating each other's individuality and needs. Treating others as one would like to be treated and sustaining a tidy, well-kept, and purposeful environment.

Collaboration: Having the confidence to effectively, efficiently, and productively work with others. Valuing all contributions to the Academy, having empathy and consideration for other people's feelings, and collaborating, sharing, encouraging, and developing ideas to become stronger.

Honesty: Having the morals to be truthful, authentic, and do the right thing. Having the courage to do and say the right thing in a respectful way, being fair, sincere, and honest, and understanding the rules and meeting the expectations of the learning community.

Let us introduce OUR TRUST

You will already know this, but we are a large multi-academy trust dedicated to providing exceptional education across our network of academies. Our mission is to inspire and challenge every student to achieve their full potential, and we are committed to creating a supportive and dynamic learning environment.

students and the communities we serve. We are proud of our achievements and the progress we continue to make in delivering high-quality education.
