

Beths Grammar School

Head of PE

Start date

September 2026

Salary

MPS/UPS Outer London + TLR1M

Beths Grammar School is a large multi-cultural school on the borders between London and Kent serving a wide range of vibrant and exciting communities. We specialise in boys' education in the main school and have a large, co-educational 6th form.

The PE department is proud of its attainment both within the classroom and on the sports field. We have a strong tradition of sporting success across a range of sports, achieving county and national honours in football, rugby, cricket and cross country. We are equally proud of the levels of participation of the students across all the Key Stages. The department endeavours to give every student the opportunity to excel and to gain a sense of personal achievement regardless of their ability.

This is an exciting opportunity for a well-qualified, enthusiastic and highly motivated teacher looking to progress to or remain at Head of PE and join our large, vibrant outstanding PE department, with its proven track record of embracing innovative approaches to teaching and learning for September 2026.
