Title of Post: Teacher of Electronics
Grade/Pay Range: MPS/UPS (Outer London)
Department: Design Technology, Electronics & Food and Nutrition
Responsible to: Head of Design Technology, Electronics & Food and Nutrition
Responsible for: None

The Design and Technology Department is a strong department within the school, made up of the post holder, the Head of Design Technology, Electronics and Food & Nutrition, the Head of Faculty, and other teachers and technicians. The staff are highly experienced teachers and very supportive of each other, sharing good practice and resources regularly. There is a strong supportive leadership from the experienced and successful Head of Department and Head of Faculty.

FACILITIES AND RESOURCES

The school provides outstanding facilities for teaching Design Technology including a very strong Electronics and Product Design curriculum to A Level, with a dedicated suite of rooms along with a faculty hub/departmental staffroom for staff to work in. The school is part of the DfE's Schools Rebuilding Programme, that will include state of the art facilities for teaching Design Technology.

LINE OF RESPONSIBILITY

The post holder is directly responsible to the Head of Department on curriculum matters and the Director of Key Stage for pastoral issues.

JOB PURPOSE

- To teach and deliver high quality lessons that challenge, support and encourage learners within the Design Technology Department. The successful candidate will be able to teach Electronics at both KS4 and KS5. Experience delivering the Eduqas Electronics specification, or a similar curriculum, is highly desirable. This position may also suit a Physics teacher with a strong specialism or demonstrable experience in Electronics.
