CAREERS WITH US

Welcome

Welcome to Compass Eko Trust. As Co-Chief Executive Officers, we are delighted that you are considering joining us.

We believe that where a child starts in life should never determine where they end up. Our commitment is simple and uncompromising: all achieving, without exception.

Our schools sit at the heart of everything we do. The Trust exists to serve them, bringing clarity, consistency and support so leaders can focus on delivering excellent education in their communities.

Across our Trust, we share a common purpose: every child succeeds and every adult is supported to do their best work. We are deliberate about collaboration, sharing what works and holding each other to high standards.

Our values guide how we work every day: excellence, inclusion, kindness and integrity. We hold high expectations, ensure everyone belongs, work together to improve, and do what is right, not what is easy.

Our staff are central to everything we achieve. We invest in our people, create strong professional networks across our schools, and provide meaningful opportunities for development at every stage.

We are building a Trust that is ambitious for every child and every colleague, and rooted in the communities we serve.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Best wishes

John Camp, OBE

Our mission: All Achieving without Exception

Compass Eko Trust is a Multi-Academy Trust formed on 1 April 2026 through the merger of The Compass Partnership of Schools (established 2017) and Eko Trust (established 2016).

The Trust comprises 28 schools across the Royal Borough of Greenwich, East London, Essex, Suffolk and Brighton, including primary, special and SEMH provision.

We are one of the UK's top ten primary MATs and a leading SEN provider nationally: 28 schools committed to strong outcomes for every child through high-quality teaching and a knowledge-rich curriculum. We are unique among large trusts in combining scale in both mainstream and SEND education: our 24 primary schools make us a significant mainstream operator, alongside four special schools where every child and young person is on an individual pathway that reflects their needs. Our schools operate within a clear educational framework, combining shared approaches to teaching and learning with each school's local identity. We build great schools where every child and young person flourishes, every colleague thrives and everyone belongs - feeling safe, respected and valued for who they are.

To improve outcomes for children schools collaborate, share expertise and build on their strengths so that practice across the Trust benefits all pupils.

We are committed to inclusion in its fullest sense, ensuring every child, regardless of background or need, can succeed. Our shared vision supports children to become curious, enthusiastic, resilient and confident learners.

*Our work to embed inclusion has been recognised nationally:
We were named 2026 TES Inclusive Trust of the Year*

As a civic trust, we play an active role in our communities, building strong partnerships while maintaining the distinct ethos of each school.

Collaborative & Supportive Culture

We are a connected community of staff working towards a shared aim: providing excellent education for every child. Heads and senior leaders are genuine strategic partners in Trust decisions, actively involved in shaping direction, diagnosing problems and designing solutions together.

“Sharing expertise and adapting teaching at scale has become seamless across the Trust.”

Deputy Head , South Rise

Whether you are a support staff member, Early Career Teacher, experienced teacher or school leader, you will be supported by colleagues across the Trust. You are never working in isolation. Our people strategy names and reaches this group explicitly, with specific commitments to protect workload, extend CPD access and develop career pathways - for support staff as much as for teaching staff.

Our staff work together across schools in areas such as safeguarding, assessment and teaching, reviewing practice and exploring different approaches. This shared way of working strengthens practice and helps to distribute workload effectively.

“Joining Eko has led to many changes at Rushmere Hall, with collaboration quickly becoming a natural part of how we work.”

Teacher, Rushmere Hall

We prioritise strong relationships, open communication and a culture of professional trust. Leaders are accessible, feedback is valued, and support is always available when it is needed.

“Being part of a large team with a shared goal feels like the norm now.”

Workload & Wellbeing

Staff wellbeing is central to our success. We are committed to creating a working environment that is supportive, sustainable and enables staff to do their best work.

Our approach focuses on both practical support and wider organisational culture. We review workload, systems and ways of working to ensure they are effective and manageable, supported by regular staff feedback and Trust-wide action.

We provide a range of support services for staff, including:

- A confidential Employee Assistance Programme with access to advice and counselling for personal and work-related matters
- Occupational health support, offering guidance on health, safety and wellbeing at work
- Access to wellbeing and medical support services, including counselling and additional healthcare provision

We also offer initiatives that support healthier lifestyles, including the cycle-to-work scheme.

Our aim is to ensure all staff feel supported, valued and able to sustain a long-term career within the Trust.

“Sharing the mental load and responsibility of the role has had a positive impact on my sense of wellbeing.”

We are also committed to embedding environmental sustainability across our estate and curriculum, as part of our responsibility to the future our children will inhabit

Equal Opportunities and Safeguarding Statement

Compass Eko Trust is an equal-opportunity employer. We welcome applications from all suitable candidates, regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age or other protected characteristics.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and vulnerable adults and fulfilling our statutory obligations as detailed in the DfE statutory Guidance, 'Keeping Children Safe in Education'.

It is important for us to recruit candidates who share this commitment and therefore we apply robust recruitment and selection procedures to ensure that the people selected are suitable and that all candidates are subject to appropriate pre-employment checks. You can read our Safeguarding Policy here and our Job Applicant Privacy Notice here.

Your Application

Where the role you are applying for involves engaging in regulated activity relevant to children, you should be aware that it is an offence to apply for the role if you are barred from engaging in regulated activity relevant to children

Interview

If you are invited for an interview for a position working with, or with access to sensitive information relating to children and young people, we shall assess your suitability by considering the following:

- your motivation to work with children and young people;
- your ability to form and maintain appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people;
- your emotional resilience in working with challenging behaviours; and
- your attitude to the use of authority and maintaining discipline.

Pre-Employment Checks

Before any unconditional offer, successful candidates will also be asked to complete a self-declaration form to declare any unspent (current) and spent (old) criminal convictions, police cautions, final warnings or reprimands which are not protected (or filtered out) by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013.

All posts with the Trust are exempt from the requirements of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974, meaning that all convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as 'spent', must be declared on application.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with us. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of your offences.

Guidance for Applicants on our Application Process

Once you have found the role you want to apply for, you need to make sure your application form gives you the best possible chance of getting an interview. The following tips will help you in the application process.

Completing your Application

- Complete all parts of the application form
- Use clear, plain English. Do not use all block capitals or all lowercase
- Check your spelling and grammar. Read what you have written back to yourself; does it make sense?
- Tailor your application form to the job you are applying for by carefully reading the job description and matching your skills and experience to the criteria in the person specification (found at the end of the job description)
- The 'supporting information' section is your opportunity to really sell yourself. You can include information here that is not already covered elsewhere in the application form such as your skills, knowledge or experience relevant to the post, a brief explanation of any gaps in your employment
- Always back up what you are saying with tangible and relevant examples of your experience, achievements and any resulting key learning. So rather than just writing 'I am a good team player', give examples of teams you have been part of, your role within those teams and an explanation of what you achieved through working collectively.
- Don't forget to complete the equal opportunities monitoring form and send this with your application to the email address stated.

The Recruitment Journey

Apply Now: Submit your application through our system on MyNewTerm before the advertised closing date for the role. In some circumstances we may close a role early once we have a number of good candidates.

Shortlisting: We will use the information in your application form (but not the equal opportunities monitoring information) to draw up a short list of candidates to be invited to interview. Shortlisted candidates will be contacted within 2 weeks of the closing date.

Selection: If you have been shortlisted we will give you full details of what to expect during our selection process. This will include what format the selection will take, where it will be, who will be involved, what you need to bring and anything specific you might need to prepare. Examples of commonly used selection methods are; in-class assessments, interviews, presentations, tasks

Before the selection date, we will apply for references for you, if you have given us permission to do so before interview, and we will conduct an online check.

On the selection day you will be able to ask questions of the interview panel and they will let you know when they expect to inform you of the outcome of the selection.

Following the selection, our panel will consider carefully all the information from your application and the selection process. They will use this information to make their decision about who to offer the role to and will let you know by phone or by email. We'll give you time to review the offer and ask any questions.

If you are sadly not selected we will let you know how to get feedback from us.

The Decision

Job Offer: If you're selected for the role and accept it, we'll send a conditional offer letter, outlining the position, salary, and benefits and let you know what the next steps are. This will include how you provide us with details to do a DBS check etc.

Pre-employment checks: we will then undertake all of our pre-employment checks and will keep you informed of progress. These can sometimes take some time and we recommend that you don't resign until we have confirmed our offer to you in an unconditional offer letter. Once you have this letter we will confirm a start date with you and will start planning your induction and orientation.

Welcome Aboard: We will give you information ahead of your first day to ensure that you know what to expect.

Please do ask any questions at all throughout this process. You can contact the person who is administering the recruitment process, whose details will be on any communication to you on My New Term.

We look forward to receiving your application and to the contribution you could make in helping all achieve, without exception.
