

Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENDCo)

Salary Point: £44,500 - £50,500 dependant on qualifications and experience.

Responsible to: Provision Lead

Job Type: Full time – term time only – 39 weeks per year to include 5 training days.

RISE is expanding the dynamic team at our visionary setting in Aylesbury, to deliver innovative bespoke whole-person educational packages.

“RISE SPACE is Revolutionising SEND Education for aspirational learning, personal empowerment and confidence to shatter glass ceilings, reaching new levels of achievement with young people aged 16-25 years old. RISE prioritises understanding the whole person and uses this to inform the curriculum, programmes of support and to build a solid platform for future pathways.”

We are seeking a dynamic, innovative, and experienced SEND Practitioner to work alongside our Provision Lead as a SENDCo.

The successful candidate will guide the RISE SPACE team and ensure the delivery of high standards in teaching, support, intervention, and guidance to help students overcome barriers to learning, engagement, and well-being. They will support a dynamic team committed to providing effective and transformative education for young people, identifying needs, and creating holistic curriculums that nurture well-being, build resilient foundations for future pathways, and uphold standards in line with the SEND Code of Practice.

This role involves supporting and delivering an innovative curriculum that is adapted and modified to meet individual needs, outcomes, and aspirations. The curriculum will also develop the character, confidence, and independence of the young people who attend, while motivating staff, strengthening work-based and social links, and promoting productivity, happiness, balance, and opportunities for all - staff, students, and stakeholders.

Do you have:

- a firmly embedded understanding of Special Educational Needs and innovative methods for identifying and removing barriers to learning, education, and community engagement?
- the ability to deliver and support others in delivering high-quality teaching and achieving strong outcomes for young people?
- a passion for learning, education, and well-being?
- the ability to model best practices?
- a personalised approach to creating safe and enriching learning environments for young people while eliminating barriers?
- imagination, enthusiasm, determination and an aspirational mindset?
- a passion for driving change and shaping future pathways for young people?

This is an exciting opportunity to join a fast-growing branch of RISE SPACE alongside an inspirational team in the heart of Aylesbury.
