LEARNING SUPPORT ASSISTANT

JUNE 2026

The role

We are seeking a dedicated and compassionate Learning Support Assistant to join our team and provide one-to-one support for pupils with Special Educational Needs (SEN). The successful candidate will play a vital role in helping students work towards the outcomes outlined in their Education, Health and Care Plans (EHCPs), ensuring they receive the support needed to succeed both academically and socially within the school environment.

In this role, you will work closely with class teachers and other professionals to plan and deliver tailored learning activities, provide educational and emotional support, and assist with routines, transitions, and behaviour management. You will contribute to creating a positive, inclusive, and nurturing environment where pupils feel safe, supported, and able to thrive.

The successful candidate will establish positive and therapeutic relationships with students, promote independence and resilience, and support pupils in developing confidence, communication, and positive relationships with peers and staff. You may also support students in using assistive technology and communication aids to help them access learning and participate fully in school life.

The successful candidate must be physically capable of supporting students with mobility needs, including assisting wheelchair users with safe movement, transfers, and access around the school environment, in accordance with manual handling guidance and individual care plans.

The role may also involve providing personal care support where required, including assistance with toileting, feeding, hygiene, and changing, while maintaining students' dignity, comfort, wellbeing, and safety in line with safeguarding procedures and school policies.

You will also be expected to follow and implement individual safety plans, risk assessments, behaviour support strategies, and care plans consistently to support students' wellbeing, emotional regulation, and safety throughout the school day.

Training and ongoing professional development will be provided, particularly for candidates who have experience working within care or support settings but are new to the education sector. This training will be tailored to the needs of individual students and the expectations of the role.

SHENFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

ABOUT US

Shenfield High School is a standalone 11-18 Academy with a comprehensive ethos and a commitment to high academic standards supported by a significant investment in pastoral care and wellbeing.

We offer a broad and rich curriculum from years 7 to 13 with a full commitment to the traditional academic, creative and the physical. Our reputation for sport, both elite and recreational and for our creative arts is second to none for a state comprehensive school. Through the efforts of our highly engaged staff the curriculum runs strongly through into the extracurricular with clubs and activities offered in all areas.

The whole school community has devoted significant time in the most recent years revisiting the school values and the House System.

SUPPORT

Our greatest asset is our staff, 'Team Shenners'. Our teaching staff are very experienced and committed to Shenfield High School and they are complimented by a group of newer entrants to the profession who bring fresh ideas and energy to the school. The teaching team works hand in hand with the highly qualified and experienced support staff who are integral to the daily functioning of the school.

At Shenfield High School we recognise that starting at a new school whether a new entrant to the profession or more experienced can feel daunting and comes with added pressure. The evaluation extract below highlights some of the key actions taken this year in support of staff wellbeing.

Shenfield High School is a strong community of staff, students, and their parents. Parents are very supportive of the school and recognise the uniqueness of some of the opportunities their children are afforded by attending the school.

As a standalone academy it is our governing body that works in partnership with the Headteacher and senior team in setting the strategic direction of the school. Our governors come from a variety of backgrounds and professions and are very supportive of the school.
