

Position for Midday Supervisor

We wish to appoint a Midday Supervisor (MDSA) to join our committed and talented lunchtime staff team at The Catholic School of Saint Gregory the Great.

Our Midday Supervisors are important and valued members of our school team. They help the children develop their friendships and social skills and encourage them to be creative with their play.

You will need to have the ability to work under direction and on your own to provide general lunchtime supervisory support, as well as be happy to lead some playground games and support our children whilst they are eating. You will be a good role model for our children, showing enthusiasm and being a reliable member of this important school team.

Previous experience is not essential, but the successful applicant must be prepared to undertake suitable training as required and be able to think on their feet and interact well with children.

Further conversations with the school are strongly encouraged to fully understand the variety of the roles. Please arrange appointments through our School Business Manager, Mrs Claire Harte, on 01242 513659 or sbm@st-gregorygreat.gloucs.sch.uk
