

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in this senior leadership position in a Church of England School within the Diocese of Truro.

The Church of England's Vision for Education is deeply Christian, with the promise from Jesus of 'life in all its fullness' at its heart. Something we are passionate about here is that this promise is a lived experience for all those in and around the schools in our diocese. When we talk of schools in our diocese, we of course refer to our family of Church Schools but note clearly that all schools in Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly are schools in the Diocese of Truro - our commitment is for one and all.

We seek to ensure the very best outcomes (educational, societal and life-affecting) for children and young people everywhere so that they can achieve their fullest potential - to live a full life. This role would require a deep commitment to our very clear aim and embrace being part of a powerful partnership between the Diocese of Truro and our school communities.

If successful, in being appointed into a Church School or a trust which includes a Church school, you are joining our wider diocesan family of schools. You will be integral in our commitment to 'Join the DoTS' - the Diocese of Truro Schools. Here in the Diocese of Truro, Church Schools enable nearly 8,000 pupils to flourish within 43 Church Schools and additionally consider over 150 community schools to be part of our diocesan family of schools due to their shared governance.

The Diocesan Education Team work alongside schools and trusts to promote, protect and nurture the Christian foundation of schools and ensure that their vision, underpinned by theology, is secure and enabling the flourishing of all. We offer many training, development and networking events and seek to support leaders in our shared mission: to serve our communities well and ensure the flourishing of all.

We wish you well as you discern whether this is a role for which you wish to apply and for any application you make.

We look forward to working with you in the future.

Yours sincerely,

Lee Moscato
