Role Summary

As SEND Specialist Key Worker: SEMH, you will play a pivotal role in ensuring our students receive world class education. You will take a pro-active role in the support of the educational, developmental and social needs of our students with Social, Emotional and Mental Health needs.

You will work closely with teachers, school staff and students to ensure that all students receive the support and guidance they need to succeed and go on to lead great lives. As a SEND Specialist Key Worker you will work in class with specific pupils, as well as leading support for individuals or groups of learners who require additional support to access their education. This will include coaching and mentoring pupils, running small group interventions and liaising with professionals and parents, and completing the graduated response. Additionally, you will be an ambassador for students with SEMH and be a key role model for the wider class and school.

What you will be doing

Build Knowledge

- To assist students with SEMH in developing knowledge, skills and attitudes as defined by the curriculum, taking into account the learning support involved in aiding students to learn as effectively as possible.
- To construct individualised, bespoke packages of support for pupils with SEMH and, where appropriate, utilising the recommendations of external professionals.
- To assist in preparing, using and maintaining relevant teaching and intervention resources, including adapting resources to suit pupils with SEMH and/or social communication needs.
- To supervise an individual or small group of children within a class under the overall control of the teacher.
- The post holder is responsible for his/her own self-development on a continuous basis, including any relevant training in SEMH.
- To encourage social integration and individual development of students.
- To develop methods of promoting and reinforcing students' self-esteem.

Build Trust

- Providing follow up advice and guidance to staff, as required, to meet needs for students with SEMH (in liaison with the SENCo and Deputy SENCo) and build positive relationships with external professionals to work collaboratively.
- To establish supportive relationships with the student/s concerned and to encourage acceptance and inclusion of all students.
- To be aware of confidential issues linked to home/student/teacher/school work and to ensure the confidentiality of such sensitive information.
- As appropriate, liaising with parents and carers to ensure the effective education of young people with SEMH.

Prioritization

- To assist with lunch and break time supervision of children.

What you will be doing

Clarity and Energy

- To support a whole school approach to being an inclusive environment', with the SEN team.
- To develop methods of promoting/reinforcing the student's self-esteem and to promote independence through the development of self-help skills.
- To carry out administrative tasks associated with all of the above duties as directed by the teacher and SENco, including record keeping.
- To be a point of contact for teaching and support staff regarding SEMH and being an advocate for young people with SEMH.
- To accompany children on educational visits and outings as supervised by the Teacher.

Follow Up

- To assist with the assessment, monitoring and recording of children's progress, health, behaviour and general wellbeing.
- To feedback any information (including concerns) regarding the well-being and educational needs of children to the teacher, SENCO, SENDSO or Principal as appropriate.
- To meet with parents and carers as appropriate.

How you will be doing it

Dream Big

- Deliver value opportunities for world class education for all students

Take Responsibility

- To maintain confidentiality of information acquired in the course of undertaking duties for the department.
- Ensure Health and Safety and Safeguarding are at the centre of your approach.
- Take accountability for your own development and aspire to deliver the very best practice across all areas of your role.
- To attend staff meetings and school-based CPD days as required.

Be Kind

- To encourage acceptance and inclusion of all students.
- Support positive strategies for promoting equality and for challenging racial and other prejudice.

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified. Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description. You could reasonably be asked to work out of our partner sites to support where required.

Qualifications

- GCSE's or equivalent to include Maths & English at a C grade or above
- Good levels of literacy and numeracy
- SEMH Training (Desirable)

Experience

- Experience working with young people with SEMH and/or social communication needs.
- Excellent communication skills, both oral and written
- Strong organisational and time management skills
- A high level of accuracy and attention to detail
- Flexible, adaptable and able to handle unexpected changes in schedules.
- Ability to manage multiple tasks, set priorities and meet deadlines
- Self-motivated and able to work in a team to collaborate with teachers, other support staff and parent to deliver effective support to students
- Strong ability to work with technology and educational software

Desirable

- Previous experience of leading interventions of mentoring children with complex needs/SEMH within a classroom environment or similar
- Experience working with students with diverse backgrounds and learning needs
- Knowledge of issues relevant to education and child development
- Knowledge of working with assistive technologies to support students with Social Communication needs.
