Welcome from Richard Lord, Deputy CEO, Synergy MAT

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for showing in interest in the Headship at Cromer Junior School. As Deputy CEO, my focus is the Primary phase schools. Prior to joining Synergy, I was a Primary Head for 12 years, during which time I also provided system leader support to a number of Norfolk schools.

We have 12 primary phase settings within the Trust, ranging from small village schools in federations to single form entry schools and larger infant and junior schools. All of our schools benefit from a shared curriculum, with Read Write Inc used for phonics, White Rose used for maths, Pathways to Writing or The Literacy Tree for English and Cornerstones for the majority of foundation subjects. These ambitious, high quality and well-resourced curricula allow our teachers to focus on delivery in the classroom, without being swamped by planning.

Collaboration sits at the heart of Synergy MAT and you would be joining a great team of school leaders, all of whom recognise the benefits of working together, sharing best practice and providing peer to peer support. Our Primary leaders meet every half term and all our schools have an open door policy for sharing practice within and beyond the MAT.

Professional development is another key strength of Synergy MAT. We have increased the number of inset days in the year to enable a comprehensive programme of PD to be delivered, which facilitates collaborative work on shared projects, such as curriculum and assessment priorities or high-quality teaching. We also run a comprehensive package of finance training and our Professional Development Lead is able to source bespoke solutions as priorities arise. The role comes with opportunities for Trust Wide responsibilities.

As you will have read in this pack, Cromer Junior School is a fantastic school with a unique character. I hope that you are able to visit the School and see for yourself, and that you are keen to apply for the Headship.

Very best wishes,

Richard Lord

February 2026

Dear Applicant,

I am delighted that you are considering applying for the post of Headteacher at Cromer Junior School

As part of the recruitment process we have given some thought as to what might encourage someone to apply for this job. This led us back to a paragraph in our most recent Ofsted inspection which nicely sums up our School. The Inspector said :-

'Pupils look forward to coming to School. They receive smiles and warmth from the adults, who look forward to teaching them. Pupils feel known, cared for and valued. This is because staff aim to help all pupils to realise their potential, even when there are barriers and challenges that might stand in the way.'

The School prides itself on seeing children with additional needs (40% of the School population) integrated into mainstream classes with a sense of belonging and being valued and respected. We help every child to grow and flourish. We welcome everyone and make sure our school is inclusive, safe, and caring. We teach our children to be aspirational and hard-working, healthy and resilient, kind and happy. We help them to be creative and inquisitive, to value their own individuality, and to become skilful and knowledgeable learners. We also care for our world and encourage our children to be thoughtful citizens who make a positive difference.

Included below is a list of the key attributes we are seeking in our next Head Teacher.

We have also included an overview of the School, formal job description and person specification and would encourage you to review the School Website.

We welcome visits to the School prior to short listing. Visits to meet with our current Headteacher, Mr Whil DeNeve, can be made via our School Office on 01263 512155.

The closing date for applications is Wednesday 15th April and we will be interviewing on Thursday 23rd and Friday 24th April

I look forward to meeting with you.

Kind regards,

John Sansby
(Chair of Governors, Cromer Junior School)
