About Sir William Robertson Academy

Sir William Robertson Academy is a highly successful 11-18 non-selective Lincolnshire school. We are proud to be one of the most sought-after schools in the area, with parents recognising the benefits of choosing a very successful school set in a peaceful and rural location.

Sir William Robertson Academy's aim is for all of our pupils to Aspire to be the best that they can be, and this core principle drives our vision for our carefully planned and structured curriculum. Children come first at our school and this is a principle which guides all of our Trust's schools. We embrace the quotation from the pioneering aviator Amelia Earhart, 'No Borders, Just Horizons' as a message of boundless optimism and opportunity for our pupils if they embrace all that our school has to offer.

Our first priority is to ensure that all of our pupils are safe, secure and happy within our school community, and are equipped with the vital skills needed to move confidently into adulthood, within a rapidly changing and technologically complex world.

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, ambitious and highly skilled Teacher of History or Teacher of Humanities* to join our successful and forward-thinking History department. This role would suit a passionate History specialist, who is keen to contribute to the teaching of A Level History.

The Role As a Teacher of History, you will:

- Deliver high-quality, engaging History lessons that inspire and challenge learners across KS3 and KS4.
- Contribute to the teaching of A Level or demonstrate the subject knowledge and enthusiasm to do so
- Plan and deliver inclusive, challenging lessons that support all learners to achieve their potential
- Assess, monitor and report on student progress in line with school policy
- Play an active role in curriculum development within the History department

We are looking for someone who:

- Is a strong classroom practitioner with high expectations for all students
- Has a passion for History and curriculum innovation
- Is reflective, collaborative and confident in working with colleagues across departments
- Believes wholeheartedly in the power of education to transform life chances

We Offer:

- A supportive, successful History Department with a shared commitment to excellence
- A strong culture of professional development and career progression
- Enthusiastic students and a school committed to high standards and inclusion
- Employee Cash Healthcare plan for eligible employees

Our school is committed to inclusion and to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The school expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All appointments are subject to an enhanced DBS check.

Visits to the school are strongly encouraged. Please contact the School Office (01400 272422) to book a place on a tour, dates and times below.

Tour Date, 30th June 2026, between 9am and 11am
