WELCOME FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in joining The Nobel School as our Deputy Headteacher responsible for Teaching and Learning and Curriculum.

I am privileged to be able to lead a team of experienced and talented staff who, combined with our broad, balanced and challenging curriculum, enable all our students to excel. My ambition for the school is that 'we' have a collective pursuit of excellence. I am passionate that Nobelians leave as confident, kind, and resilient citizens, as they are the next generation that will shape the future of our community.

This is an exciting moment in the development of our school and is a new post to compliment the current Senior Team. We are seeking a Deputy Headteacher who is intellectually curious, deeply committed to research informed practice and passionate about developing others. This role offers a rare opportunity to shape the professional culture of the school. We want a leader who will challenge us to be better, who will support colleagues to refine their craft, and who will ensure that high expectations translate into exceptional classroom practice.

We are a proud and ambitious community, united by a belief that every young person deserves access to an exceptional education. Our students are talented, diverse and full of potential, and our responsibility as educators is to ensure that the quality of teaching and the curriculum breadth enables them to flourish academically and personally.

At Nobel, we believe that great schools are built on great teaching. The quality of what happens in the classroom every day is the single most powerful driver of student success. For this reason, the leadership of teaching and learning and curriculum sits at the heart of our strategic vision.

We are a school that sets high standards to enable our students to grow academically, culturally, and socially. As Nobelians we have a common set of values, which is to be ready, respectful and safe. We believe that having high standards enables all our students to develop good character and achieve success.

If you are an ambitious school leader who is aligned with the pursuit of excellence and motivated by the opportunity to make a meaningful difference to young people's lives, we would be delighted to hear from you.

Rav Phagura

ABOUT OUR SCHOOL

The Nobel School is a well-established, vibrant, and inclusive co-educational secondary school and sixth form. It is set in an attractive open setting within a residential area, backing onto mature woodland in the desirable location of Chells. Stevenage benefits from direct train links to London and Cambridge, and its proximity to the A1 and A602 makes it easily accessible from Hertfordshire, Bedfordshire, London, and Cambridgeshire.

With nearly 1,500 students on roll, including close to 300 in our thriving sixth form, the school is one of the largest in the area. Most students join us in Year 7 from local primary schools in the town and surrounding villages.

Our modern building, completed in 2013 as part of the Building Schools for the Future programme, is a key asset. This contemporary environment fosters a positive atmosphere, providing staff and students with a welcoming, functional space to thrive.

The Nobel School is built on a foundation of inclusivity, ambition, and community. Our curriculum is broad and balanced, designed to meet the needs of all students while encouraging them to achieve their full potential. In addition to strong academic offerings, we emphasise personal development, character, and essential life skills. Students are supported in pursuing a wide range of opportunities, from STEM and the arts to vocational pathways and enrichment activities that help them grow into well-rounded individuals. We offer over 70 different clubs run by our dedicated staff, with the majority of students attending at least one per week.

As a fully comprehensive school, we are proud to offer pathways for all students. Whether they aim for prestigious universities, high-quality apprenticeships, or vocational excellence, we ensure every student is empowered to go as far as their talents and determination will take them. As an example, we send many Nobel students to elite universities every year, including Oxford and Cambridge.

Our culture is rooted in a balance of academic excellence and character development, guided by the Nobel values. This shared ethos creates a strong sense of identity as “Nobelians” among students, staff, parents, and alumni. Our thriving alumni network, now approaching 1,000 members, reflects this sense of belonging, with many former students actively supporting the school. A significant number of alumni return as teachers or visit to inspire students with their achievements since leaving, contributing further to the strength and continuity of our community.

Our school community is built around a clear set of values: Ready, Respectful and Safe. These values underpin our expectations for behaviour, learning and relationships across the school.

We are proud of our strong sense of community and the positive relationships that exist between students and staff. Visitors frequently comment on the purposeful atmosphere around the school and the commitment of staff to ensuring that students achieve their very best.

At Nobel we believe that every student should leave school equipped with:

- A strong academic foundation
- A sense of curiosity and intellectual confidence
- The character and resilience required to succeed in life

OUR VALUES AND ETHOS

Inclusive, Ambitious, Courageous, Kind

Our School...

... is happy, kind and caring; it fosters positive relationships and mutual respect.

We embrace diversity in a community full of opportunity that is based on fairness.

We celebrate our successes, aspiring to grow academically, culturally and socially so that we can lead happy, fulfilling lives...

...As Proud Nobelians, who

- are ready, respectful and safe;
- look after each other and support our community;
- are courageous, resilient and responsible role models;
- work hard, have fun and develop a love of learning;
- challenge ourselves, develop good character and achieve success

Our vision for Teaching and Learning

At The Nobel School, teaching and learning are central to our mission. We believe that effective teaching is built on:

Deep subject knowledge

Teachers who understand the structure of their subject and can guide students through complex ideas.

Evidence-informed practice

Teaching approaches that draw on the best available research about how students learn.

Deliberate professional development

Teachers who continually refine their practice through reflection, collaboration and coaching.

High expectations for all students

A belief that every student is capable of success when supported by excellent teaching.

We aim to create classrooms where:

- Students are challenged intellectually
- Knowledge is carefully sequenced and retained
- Thinking is visible and developed
- Teachers are reflective practitioners

The Deputy Headteacher for Teaching and Learning and Curriculum will play a key role in shaping and strengthening this vision.

What we offer

- A nurturing and ambitious environment where all staff can shape and elevate the school's achievements.
- A stable staff team with low teacher turnover, supported by a strong alumni network and meaningful community involvement.
- The chance to leave a lasting legacy by building on established successes and steering the school towards even greater achievements.
- An opportunity to join the school on a strong footing with the ability to shape its future and take it to the next level.
- A thorough induction and a range of personal development opportunities.
