

Thomas's
COLLEGE

Teacher of Art

Closing date: Wednesday, 25 February 2026

Welcome to Thomas's College

Thomas's College is a brand-new selective co-educational day and weekly boarding school for students from 11 to 18. Our school sits in a beautiful five-acre campus at the top of Richmond Hill, 15 minutes' walk from Richmond Station, with magnificent buildings surrounding a central garden. We have outstanding sports facilities a short drive away, with Richmond Park on our doorstep. The whole site is full of space and greenery.

We seek to offer a new approach to London independent education, built around the choices and interests of each individual, that combines the best of traditional excellence with radical innovation. We teach psychology to all students, we offer alternative qualifications alongside GCSE and A Level, we've changed the student journey to include a three-year Sixth Form - we're at the leading edge of educational reform.

Above all we offer a family atmosphere, full of heart, along with the passion and drive of an entrepreneurial start-up environment. It is a combination that we believe will bring our students benefits, in terms of their success, happiness and values, that will last lifelong. For staff, we hope that working at the College will be an experience they treasure throughout the course of their careers.

Vision and Aims

PART OF THOMAS'S LONDON DAY SCHOOLS

We are a family-run group of co-educational independent schools in central London, which seek to give an exceptional start in life to more than 2,000 children between the ages of two and eighteen. Every member of the Thomas's community is expected to live by our most important school rule, which is simply to 'Be kind'.

OUR VISION

Our vision is that every pupil at Thomas's develops core values and a strong sense of social responsibility; inner strength, outward assurance and positive physical and mental health; academic success and a wide range of skills, interests and attributes; curiosity about the world and a love of learning.

The overall goal of a Thomas's education is to equip all of our pupils with optimism and readiness for the future, to become net contributors to society, and to flourish as successful, conscientious and caring citizens of the world.

OUR AIMS

To achieve this vision, our aims at Thomas's College are:

- To provide an exceptional and innovative education to young people aged 11 to 18, founded on breadth of experience and opportunity
- To enable pupils to achieve academic excellence through a holistic approach that develops knowledge, skills, character and self-understanding
- To ensure that every member of our school communities learns and lives by a strong set of values, with kindness at the heart
- To support pupils to make meaningful choices about their future, fostering a sense of purpose and personal ownership
- To promote a diversity of excellence that encourages different types of intelligence, problem-solving and the ability to make connections

The Heads and Principals
Thomas's London Day Schools

The Role

OVERVIEW

All teaching roles at Thomas's College are built on three qualities above all: genuine subject passion; enthusiasm; and interest in and care for students.

Alongside this, teaching at the College requires a delight in innovation, personal learning and development. Teachers will thrive on the intensity of the role while also being mindful of balance and their own wellbeing. One of our founding principles is breadth of provision and experience, and as with all subjects, we will always value flexibility and readiness to embrace innovative and cross-curricular ways of working.

This role in the Art department is a wonderful opportunity to join a growing team as we build a remarkable programme as a key part of the Thomas's College offer.

The Art School is on the first floor of College. There are three multi-function studio spaces, a pottery room, three pottery wheels and a kiln. The spaces are equipped with a range of materials and resources for both lesson time and extra curricular clubs during and after school. The department oversees a broad curriculum challenging both traditional and new media techniques. Art is taught to all students in Years 7 and 8, and it becomes a popular option from Year 9 onwards. Many students then go on to study Art, Craft and Design at GCSE and A Level.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Teaching Art as stipulated, ensuring the highest standards as well as an enquiry mindset approach to teaching and learning.
- Ensure effective assessment, tracking and reporting of pupil progress.
- Maintain high standards of behaviour, safeguarding and professional conduct.
- Adapt teaching to meet the needs of all learners.
- Engage in ongoing professional development to maintain subject knowledge.
- In most cases teachers are also expected to act as a tutor and mentor to students.
- In addition, all teachers are also fully involved in wider school life, including a substantial commitment such as involvement in sports teams or equivalent, alongside support for the clubs programme.
