

“We succeeded because...

...our students got to and through university, or a real alternative, so that they lived a great life full of opportunity and choice.”

