Starting Salary	£13,307
Grade	D5-6
Hours	22.5 h.p.w.
Weeks	39 weeks per year
Start date	January 2026
Contact Type	Maternity Cover

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, positive and professional Art Technician to join a vibrant and happy school. The successful candidate will be a well-qualified, highly organised, self-motivated and committed individual. They will be confident, have well developed interpersonal skills and be able to work as part of a team.

The purpose of this role is to support teaching staff with the day to day running of the department such as; preparing resources, cleaning of equipment, ordering and sorting stock as well as supporting students on a 1:1 basis primarily at KS4 or those that have joined our school outside of the normal transition periods, so that they feel part of our school community and the impact of moving schools on their learning is kept to a minimum. This is a maternity cover post.

The successful candidate will have experience and knowledge of:

- Working with young people
- Building strong relationships with students and their families
- The key stage 3 and 4 National Curriculum
- Supporting children with their learning
- Removing barriers to learning
- Working as part of a team
- Effective communication

Regardless of your role in school, we are committed to developing all our staff through regular coaching and a wide range of professional development opportunities both in school and through external partners such as the South West Institute for Teaching (SWIFT) . We also work in partnership with Education South West (ESW) as part of a strong family of schools.

If you are passionate about making a difference to the life chances of our children then we want to hear from you!
