- Use specialist skills/training/experience to support pupils
- Provide pastoral support to pupils, and assist in their social, health and hygiene development
- Provide information and advice to enable pupils to make choices about their own learning/behaviour/attendance

2. Support for the Teacher

- Work with the teacher in lesson planning, evaluating, and adjusting lessons/work plans as appropriate
- Use strategies, in liaison with the teacher, to support pupils to achieve learning goals
- Prepare the classroom as directed for lessons and clear afterwards. Assist with the display of pupils' work
- Ensure the timely and accurate design, preparation, and use of specialist equipment/resources/materials
- Monitor and evaluate pupils' responses to learning activities through observation and planned recording of achievement against pre-determined learning objectives
- Provide the teacher with objective and accurate feedback and reports as required, on pupil achievement, progress and other matters, ensuring the availability of appropriate evidence
- Be responsible for keeping and updating records as agreed with other staff, contributing to reviews of systems/records as requested
- Administer and assess routine tests, invigilate exams, undertake routine marking of pupils' work and accurately recording achievement/progress
- Establish constructive relationships with parents/carers as agreed with the teacher, exchanging information, facilitating their support for their child's attendance, access and learning, and supporting home to school and community links
- Provide general clerical/admin support eg dealing with correspondence, analysing data on attendance/exclusions etc, administering coursework, producing worksheets for agreed activities, photocopying, typing, filing etc
- Assist in the development, implementation, and monitoring of systems related to attendance and integration
- Liaise with feeder schools and other relevant bodies to gather pupil information
- Contribute to the development and implementation of appropriate behaviour management strategies

3. Support for the Curriculum

- Support pupils in understanding instructions
- Implement structured and agreed learning activities/teaching programmes, adjusting activities according to pupil responses
- Implement local and national learning strategies eg literacy, numeracy, early years etc as directed by the teachers
- Support pupils using ICT and develop pupils' competence and independence in its use
- Determine the need for, prepare and maintain equipment/resources as directed by the teacher and assist pupils in their use
- Monitor and manage stock within an agreed budget, cataloguing resources and undertaking audits as required
- Be aware of and appreciate a range of activities, courses, organisations and individuals to provide support for pupils to broaden and enrich their learning

4. Support for the School

- Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, health, safety and security, confidentiality and data protection, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person
- Be aware of and support difference and ensure that pupils have equal access to opportunities to learn and develop
- Contribute to the overall ethos/work/aims of the school
- To maintain constructive relationships and communicate with other agencies/professionals, in liaison with the teacher, to support the achievement and progress of the pupils
- Attend and participate in relevant meetings as required
- Participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required
- Recognise own strengths and areas of expertise and use these to advise and support others
- Provide appropriate guidance and supervision and assist in the training and development of staff as appropriate
- Implement planned supervision of pupils out of school hours
- Accompany teaching staff and pupils, as appropriate, on visits, trips and out of school activities, and take responsibility for a group under the supervision of a teacher

Other Responsibilities:

- Be aware of and comply with all school policies and procedures
- Be aware of and support difference and ensure equal opportunities for all
- Contribute to the overall ethos/work/aims of the school and the Trust
- Appreciate and support the role of other professionals
- Attend and participate in relevant meetings as required
- Participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required
- Safeguarding - be aware of and comply with safeguarding responsibilities as outlined in the Trust Staff Code of Conduct and related policies and procedures
- Data Protection and other statutory responsibilities - be aware of and comply with data protection responsibilities as outlined in the Trust Staff Code of Conduct and related policies and procedures
- Other Duties - any other duties that the Head of School/Class Teacher feel is/are commensurate with the post. Whilst every effort is made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified

Why would an aspirational Learning Support Assistant join us?

We are committed to developing our staff and to providing opportunities for growth. We want to encourage the career progression of our employees wherever possible, and support staff who wish to move between our schools and the Shared Services Team when suitable roles arise. We also offer secondment opportunities when available.

At Empower Multi-Academy Trust you would be working alongside excellent leaders in education, each with specific areas of expertise. We offer Middle and Senior Leadership development programmes, professional support networks and career development pathways for staff at all levels. In addition, we also have mentoring and coaching programmes, peer learning, internal and external CPD opportunities.

Health and Wellbeing Services

Working in education is a challenging job and the health and wellbeing of our staff is high on our agenda and a key priority. We have several Trust wide wellbeing initiatives that offer support and guidance for our workforce:

- A Trust Wellbeing Strategy and Charter outlining our commitment to staff wellbeing.
- At least one trained Mental Health First Aider in every location, helping to embed our belief that physical and mental health hold equal importance.
- A network of Mental Health First Aiders and Mental Health Leads who provide support, guidance, and signposting to colleagues across the Trust.
- A Future in Mind network representing all our academies, who signpost staff to wellbeing support and information, and ensure staff voice is heard.
- A designated Trustee sponsor whose role is to ensure staff wellbeing remains a priority
- Wellbeing is a discussion item on each Trustee / Local Governing Body meeting agenda
- Dissemination of annual staff wellbeing questionnaires to inform future actions
- Active engagement in national and international awareness days
- Working towards the Mental Health and Work Commitment and the Education Staff Wellbeing Charter.

PRIVACY NOTICE - JOB APPLICANTS

This privacy notice advises job applicants of the Trust's commitment to data protection responsibilities of privacy and confidentiality relating to the collection and processing of their personal information.

We collect and process your personal data as part of the recruitment process in relation to the role you are applying for. All Headteachers and Managers involved in the recruitment process have responsibility for ensuring that applicants' personal information is held and processed in the correct way.

What is personal information

Personal information is any information that relates to you and can be used directly or indirectly to identify you, such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural, or social identity of that natural person (GDPR article 4).

Special categories of personal data means information about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, health, sex life or sexual orientation and biometric/genetic data (GDPR article 9).

Legal Basis for Using Personal Data

We collect personal data only for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, storage, retrieval, use, disclosure, dissemination, erasure, or destruction (GDPR article 4).

1. We process personal data lawfully, only where it is adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary for the purposes of processing.
2. We keep accurate personal data, only for the period necessary for processing, and take all reasonable steps to ensure that inaccurate personal data is rectified or deleted without delay.
3. We adopt appropriate measures to make sure that personal data is secure, and protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction, or damage.
4. We do this to ensure a candidate is suitable for the role and to make sure reasonable adjustments can be made for those applicants who have a disability.
5. Processing of personal data ensures that a fair recruitment process has taken place.

We will not process personal data of applicants for reasons other than the recruitment and selection process. Where we process special categories of personal data or criminal records data to perform obligations, this is done for legal reasons. We will update personal data promptly if an applicant advises that his/her information has changed or is inaccurate.

To operate an effective recruitment process, we will collect and store personal information you submit as part of the application process. By submitting your personal information, you are consenting to us using it in accordance with this policy. You are under no obligation to provide your consent for the organisation to hold your data out-side of the recruitment process. If you do not consent to the organisation holding, processing, and sharing your personal data during the recruitment process, we may not be able to process your application.

In some cases, the organisation will need to process data to ensure that it is complying with its legal obligations. For example, we must check an applicant's entitlement to work in the UK.

What data do we hold on you?

The personal data we hold regarding you can include, but is not limited to, information such as:

- Your name and address.
