Admin Officer - Job Description

Main Purpose of the Role:

The School Administrative Officer is a key member of the school's support team, responsible for ensuring the smooth and efficient operation of the school office. This role involves a wide range of administrative and organisational tasks, supporting the leadership team, staff, pupils, and parents. As the first point of contact for many visitors and enquiries, the Administrative Officer plays a vital role in promoting a welcoming and professional image of the school.

Office Administration & Reception

- Oversee the smooth day-to-day running of the school office, ensuring a welcoming and professional environment.
- Act as the first point of contact for parents, visitors, and external agencies - handling phone calls, emails, and face-to-face enquiries with efficiency and warmth.
- Undertake reception duties, including signing in visitors and managing security protocols.
- Coordinate school communications such as newsletters, letters to parents, and website updates.
- Support the organisation of school events, trips, and meetings, including diary management for senior staff.

Pupil & Attendance Support

- Monitor and record pupil attendance and punctuality, following up on absences in line with school policy.
- Assist with pupil admissions, transfers, and leavers, ensuring accurate and timely documentation.
- Provide welfare support to pupils, including first aid, liaising with parents, and maintaining up-to-date medical records.
- Maintain confidentiality and support safeguarding procedures by managing sensitive information appropriately.

Administrative & Clerical Support

- Provide comprehensive administrative support to the Headteacher and senior leadership team, including minute-taking, data entry, and report preparation.
- Maintain manual and computerised records using the school's MIS (e.g. Arbor), producing reports and data as required.
- Manage general clerical tasks such as photocopying, filing, word processing, and handling correspondence.
- Sort and distribute mail, complete standard forms, and submit returns to external agencies (e.g. DfE).
- Organise teacher cover and maintain the weekly cover timetable.

Finance & Resources

- Process orders, invoices, and payments in line with school financial procedures.
- Order and maintain office and classroom supplies, ensuring stock control and value for money.

HR & Compliance

- Support HR processes including maintaining staff records, processing DBS checks, and assisting with recruitment.
- Ensure compliance with school policies, including safeguarding, data protection, and health and safety.
- Provide guidance to staff, pupils, and visitors on school procedures and expectations.

Admin Officer - Job Description

IT & Systems Support

- Confidently use ICT systems and software (e.g. Word, Excel, databases) to support administrative tasks.
- Operate and maintain office equipment such as photocopiers and interactive whiteboards.
- Assist pupils and staff with basic ICT-related queries when needed.

Team & School Support

- Contribute to the training, supervision, and development of other support staff as required.
- Participate in staff meetings, training sessions, and performance development activities.
- Support the school's ethos and values, promoting a positive and inclusive environment for all.

Continuing Professional Development

- Participate in the school's Performance Management Scheme.
- Undertake professional development as identified to enhance your role and impact.

Additional Information

This job description outlines the main duties and responsibilities of the role but is not exhaustive. You may be required to undertake other duties of a similar level as directed by your manager. Reasonable adjustments will be made to support disabled applicants or employees. The job description may be reviewed and amended in consultation with you, and you will have the opportunity to discuss any changes with your line manager. You may be accompanied by a trade union representative if you wish.

Special Conditions of Service

This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (1974). The amendments to the Exceptions order 1975 (2013 & 2020) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Ministry of Justice website. Because the post allows substantial access to children, candidates are required to comply with Trust safeguarding and DBS procedures.

Policies and Procedures

Ensure full awareness of, compliance with, and adherence to all school policies and procedures relating to the management, teaching, and learning within the school.

Contacts and Relationships

Deliver the expected standard and level of service, identifying and reporting any shortfalls or opportunities for improvement. Consistently uphold high professional standards in attendance, punctuality, appearance, conduct, and maintaining positive, respectful relationships with pupils, parents/carers, and colleagues.

Equalities

Actively enforce the school's equal opportunities policies and fulfil all statutory responsibilities to ensure fairness, inclusivity, and respect for all individuals in every aspect of service delivery.

Additional points

All staff are expected to comply with academy and Trust policies. Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified. Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description.

Admin Officer - Job Description

The Trust will endeavour to make any necessary reasonable adjustments to the job and the working environment to enable access to employment opportunities for disabled job applicants or continued employment for any employee who develops a disabling condition. The job description may be subject to amendment or modification, should circumstances change, changes will be discussed with you in the first instance. Should a disagreement arise, you will be afforded the opportunity of a meeting to resolve the matter with your line manager. You may wish to be accompanied at this meeting by a representative of your Trade Union if you so wish.

Data Protection

Nexus Education Schools Trust (NEST) is committed to protecting your privacy when you apply for a position with us. It is important to us that you can trust us to keep your information safe and to use it in ways that you will think are reasonable and ethical. NEST are the data controller for the information we hold about you, this means we control how your personal information is processed and for what purposes.

For further information please refer to our Data Protection Policy <http://nestschools.org/nest-policies/>
