We believe in getting the fundamentals right from the start and sharing with our pupils and community the values that we have created that underpin our foundations evidenced through our actions and not words alone.

At the heart of our ethos and culture is Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs – we believe in 'HUMANKIND' and want our school community of pupils, staff, parents to feel safe, valued, respected and understood as individuals. Only then can we strive for individual and collective 'betterment'.

Our three core values are underpinned by the Tudor Grange Academies Trust five core values. Our core values are:

KINDNESS AND COMPASSION:

- Tolerating the thoughts of others and challenging them where appropriate respectfully.
- Developing in our pupils and our community a "sympathetic consciousness of others' distress together with a desire to alleviate it."

RESPONSIBILITY:

- Contributing positively in our school and wider community
- Being ready to learn and to always doing our best
- Attending school punctually and maintaining high expectations of attendance
- Wearing our full uniform with pride
- Treating our school like our homes and looking after our own and other people's belongings
- Being considerate and courteous in our actions and words.

RESPECT:

- Treating others as we would want to be treated ourselves
- Developing self-respect and taking responsibility for our actions in order to grow in to the best versions of ourselves
- Listening and responding to staff and other pupils positively.
- Recognising the importance of mental health and wellbeing and knowing we can reach a point when our buckets are full which affects our abilities to regulate our behaviours without support
- Knowing who our safe people and places are to buffer us when we need extra support. We are proud of the good behaviour in our school and the mutual respect which is integral to our school community. We have a positive approach to behaviour management at Tudor Grange Primary Academy Meon Vale and details of this are explained in our school's behaviour policy which you will find on the policies page of our school website.
