Lunchtime Supervisor

Job details

- Job title: Lunchtime Supervisor
- Hourly rate: SCP 3 (£12.85)
- Contract type: Part-time and permanent
- Hours per week: 8.75
- Working pattern: 11.30 a.m. to 1.15 p.m. (Monday to Friday)
- Weeks worked: Term-time only (38 weeks per year)
- Reporting to: Deputy Head Teacher

Main purpose

Under the general direction of the Deputy Head Teacher, ensure the safety, general welfare and proper conduct of pupils during the school's lunchtime period.

Duties and responsibilities

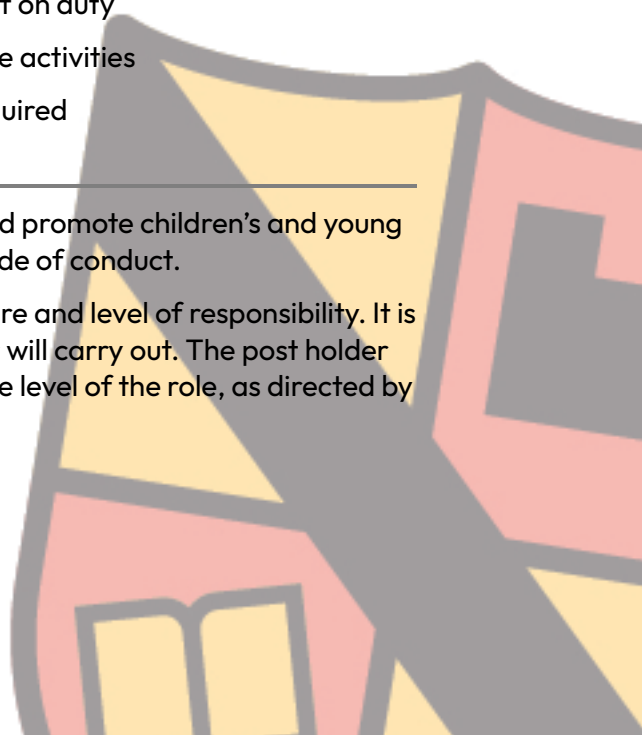

Under the direction of the deputy head teacher:

- Prepare the layout of tables in preparation for lunch
- Supervise pupils when they are in the dining room eating lunch and encourage good social skills and manners
- Clear up the dining room after the lunchtime period, including clearing any food left on the tables, wiping the tables and chairs, and sweeping the floor
- Supervise activities and maintain the health, safety, welfare, good conduct and safeguarding of pupils during the lunchtime period, having due regard to special educational needs and/ or disabilities
- Set out and store equipment which support lunchtime activities
- Encourage pupils to select and eat healthy, balanced meals
- Provide a safe environment for pupils to play and socialise outside
- Encourage pupils to be resilient and independent and follow our school's values
- Ensure the school's behaviour management policy is followed and deal with incidents accordingly, including reporting these to senior staff on duty
- Actively encourage pupils' participation in lunchtime activities
- Provide first aid during the lunchtime period, as required

Other areas of specific responsibility

The Lunchtime Supervisor will be required to safeguard and promote children's and young people's welfare and follow school policies and the staff code of conduct.

Please note that this is illustrative of the role's general nature and level of responsibility. It is not a comprehensive list of tasks the Lunchtime Supervisor will carry out. The post holder may be required to perform other duties appropriate to the level of the role, as directed by the head teacher.

Context

All support staff are part of a whole school team. They are required to support the values and ethos of the school and school priorities as defined in the school development and enhancement plan. This will mean focussing on the needs of colleagues, parents and pupils and being flexible in a busy and pressurised environment.

It is the individual's responsibility for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people he or she is responsible for or comes into contact with.

Physical effort: this role will likely involve some lifting of children and equipment regularly, and appropriate training will be provided.

Working environment: this role could involve a frequent requirement to deal with vomit and bodily fluids when children are unwell.

Underlying principles of the post

The post holder is expected to share our commitment to our organisation's vision, aims and values.

The post holder must be aware of and comply with the school's policies, guidelines and procedures relating to child protection and safeguarding, health and safety, confidentiality and data protection and report all concerns to an appropriate and named person or persons.

All staff must participate in training, other learning activities, and performance management and development as required by the school's policies and practices.

This job description is a guide to the duties the post holder will be expected to undertake. It is not exhaustive or exclusive and will be subject to change as working requirements dictate and meet the school's organisational needs.

Supervision

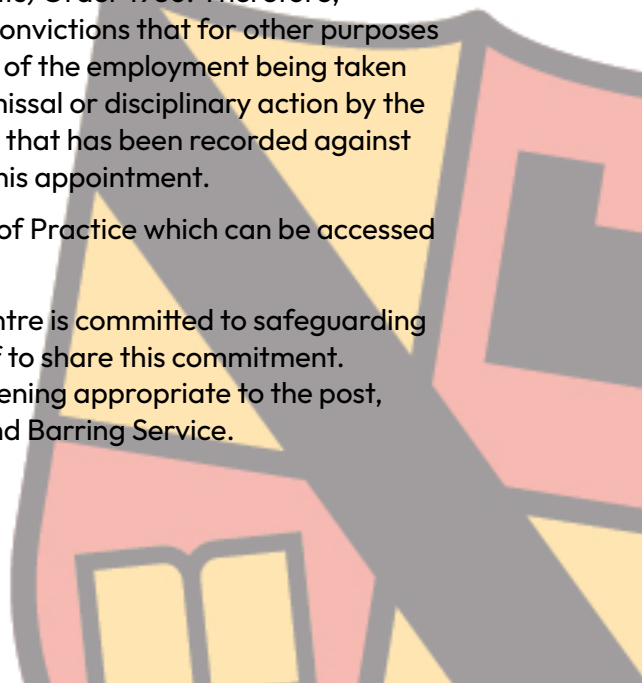

The post holder will be managed daily by the school's Deputy Head Teacher under the direction of the Head Teacher.

Additional information

Because of the nature of this job, it will be necessary for the appropriate level of criminal record disclosure to be undertaken. Therefore, in making your application, you must disclose whether you have any pending charges, convictions, bind-overs or cautions and, if so, for which offences. This post will be exempt from the provisions of Section 4 (2) of the Rehabilitation of Offenders 1974 (Exemptions) (Amendments) Order 1986. Therefore, applicants are not entitled to withhold information about convictions that for other purposes are 'spent' under the provision of the Act, and, in the event of the employment being taken up, any failure to disclose such convictions will result in dismissal or disciplinary action by the school. A pending charge, conviction, bind-over or caution that has been recorded against you will not necessarily debar you from consideration for this appointment.

Disclosures are handled in accordance with the DBS Code of Practice which can be accessed via www.disclosure.gov.uk.

Somerles Infant School and Early Childhood Education Centre is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.

CVs will not be accepted for any post at Someries Infant School and Early Childhood Education Centre.

This job description forms part of the employment contract of the person appointed to the post. It reflects the position at present and may be reviewed in negotiation with the employee. The appointment is subject to the current conditions of employment in the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document.

Someries Infant School and Early Childhood Education Centre will consider any reasonable adjustments under the Equality Act (2010) to enable an applicant with a disability (as defined under the Act) to meet the requirements of the post.

The post holder will ensure that the school's policies are reflected in all aspects of their work, in particular, those relating to:

- Equal Opportunities
- Health and Safety
- Data Protection Act (2018)

In addition to candidates' ability to perform the duties of the post, the interview will also explore issues relating to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, including:

- the candidates' motivation to work with children and young people
- the candidates' ability to form and maintain appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people
- the candidates' emotional resilience in working with challenging behaviours; and attitudes to use of authority and maintaining discipline
