A welcome from the CEO

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in our vacancy at Unity Education Trust (UET).

As Chief Executive of the UET, I am delighted to offer you a warm welcome to our Trust. These are exciting times for all those associated to Unity Education Trust. A Multi-Academy built on developing like-minded schools to be outstanding education providers through collaborative working that develops a 'unity of purpose' in all that we do.

UET has expanded its family of schools and education professionals. Our collaborative work over the last 6 months has ensured a measured evolution into our new formal Trust arrangements. We're welcoming outstanding teachers, subject specialists, tutors, support staff and experienced leaders with a record of transformation in education.

Teachers, and support staff now number 795. All of our staff share the ethos of raising aspirations, unlocking potential and securing the best possible future for the 2700 young people attending our schools.

Our school's range in size from 20 to 1200 students and effective collaboration, across our schools, is an important part of who we are.

I am proud that we are working in 'Unity' to meet the challenges in education head on and spearheading new developments for the benefit of all the children in our care.

We look forward to receiving your application

Best wishes

Glyn Hambling

CEO

An unrelenting belief and focus that all students can achieve high standards, whatever their background and life experiences when given a positive climate of support, challenge and the development of Growth Mindset through outstanding teaching.

Committed to the notion of 'raising aspirations to fulfil potential' Ensuring our learners are encouraged to build confidence, expand their leadership qualities and embrace British Values that enable all to thrive in an ever-changing society.

Our School – Churchill Park Complex Needs School

Welcome to Churchill Park Academy

We are all very proud of our school in King's Lynn. We are here to serve all children and young people in the area of West Norfolk and beyond who have special needs.

We are very lucky because we inhabit purpose built accommodation with fantastic facilities to help us meet a wide variety of individual needs for children and young people from Early Years through to Year 14.

Children and young people are admitted to our school at any time between these ages, all children and young people attending our school will have a current statement of special needs or a current Education Health Care Plan (EHCP).

We offer a wide variety of educational experiences both within and beyond the classroom. We have an emphasis on preparing our children and young people for life after school where we expect them to become as independent as possible with the desire to contribute fully to the wider community in which they live.

Our enthusiastic and inspirational staff use creative approaches to develop bespoke learning opportunities to engage and motivate all learners. Our pathway model enables us to better meet the wide range of complex needs that our pupils have.

You will see in our literature that we have three values, and these are:

- Independence
- Communication
- Inclusion

Thank you for taking an interest and please do not hesitate to contact us if you would like to find out more about what we do.

Underpinning principles

Supporting Our Staff

Unity Education Trust is committed to supporting all staff in their personal, professional and career aspirations by providing a range of development opportunities. We foster a culture which encourages you to develop your talent and strengths throughout your journey with us.

We are committed to providing the highest quality support to ensure our schools excel and give our students the education they deserve. Our Headteachers have a good deal of autonomy as school leaders within a framework developed collaboratively with our Director of Education and the Education Directorate.

Each Unity Education Trust school benefits from a comprehensive programme of support and challenge, including a strong emphasis on CPD, regular programme of training events to improve performance across all sectors within our schools.

We believe it is very important that each of our academies plans in such a way that financial and human resources are deployed to support their educational strategies fully. This is supported by our experienced Central Service team, who are available to advise on financial planning, audit, HR, legal and property matters.
