Welcome from the Head Teacher

Thank you for expressing an interest in the role of Reception Teacher

Everyone involved with Pinchmill knows it is a special place.

Pinchmill Primary School is a small village school located in Felmersham, deep in the beautiful North Bedfordshire countryside. This makes it a wonderful place to be, but it is the ethos and atmosphere which are even more striking. "Nurturing" is a word that I frequently hear when discussing Pinchmill.

The School's motto is "Excite, Inspire, Engage, Achieve!", and the emphasis is very much on the all-round happiness and wellbeing of all the children.

All members of the Governing Body are fully committed to supporting the Leadership team in continuing to develop the provision for our children, ensuring they can become confident and enthusiastic learners who are ambitious, caring and kind.

If you wish to discuss the post further, please contact our Business Manager, Mrs Krystal Perry, for an informal discussion or to arrange a tour, on 01234 781371, or at kthompson@pinchmillprimary.co.uk.

I look forward to receiving your application.

Kind regards,

Victoria Bailey
Head Teacher

Pinchmill Primary School: About Us

Pinchmill Primary School provides education for up to 115 children aged from 5 to 11 years, plus 26 children aged from 2 to 4 years in Pre-School.

Year groups

Each main year group has up to 15 children, who are grouped in classes as follows:

- Hedgehogs (Reception)
- Squirrels (Years 1 and 2)
- Foxes (Years 3 and 5)
- Owls (Years 5 and 6)

We are currently undersubscribed in some years, which is something which we are aiming to address by implementing our strategic improvements.

Location and History

The School is situated in the village of Felmersham in North Bedfordshire, which has a population of 800. The School was opened in 1974 as a Lower School and became a Primary School in 2017 when Bedford Borough moved from three to two tier education. In 2019 the Pre-School, which had been independently run, was merged with the main school.

Facilities

The School has four classrooms, a Pre school class, one large hall, a large new library, an art room, two group rooms and resource areas. Two of the classrooms are in a modern Key Stage 2 building which was added in 2017. The School serves the surrounding villages and the town of Rushden. Outside provision is good with a playground marked out for games, a shelter, a small school field and various gym trails.

The School benefits from a School Hall that is larger than average for its number of pupils. This is a result of the dual purpose of the Hall. It is also the Felmersham and Radwell Village Hall. The School is guaranteed exclusive use of the Hall during school hours.
