Exceptional Educational Experience

Dan Morrow
Trust Leader

Rich Baker
Deputy Trust Lead

Welcome

At Cornwall Education Learning Trust (CELT), our mission is clear: to provide every learner with an exceptional educational experience. One that enables them to thrive, achieve and succeed in life. We believe in a 100% mindset, that every learner, in every classroom, in every school, deserves the very best we can offer. For us, 100% means no compromise: no learner left behind, no community overlooked, and no opportunity wasted.

Our strategic goals reflect this ambition. We are committed to empowering and growing our people, building an ambitious all-through entitlement, forging exceptional relationships with our communities, transforming provision through meaningful partnerships, and leading an ethical, effective and innovative organisation. These are not just aspirations; they are promises that shape the way we work and the culture we are building together.

Joining CELT means becoming part of a values-driven trust where collaboration, innovation, and care for people are at the heart of all we do. If you share our 100% mindset, are passionate about education, and want to make a tangible difference to learners and communities across Cornwall, we would be delighted to welcome you to CELT.

Welcome from our Chair of Trustees

Our values are at the heart of everything we do. We believe in the power of Collaboration, building strong relationships and working together as one team to achieve our collective goals. We are committed to Empowerment, creating a culture where initiative, innovation and trust flourish, and where every individual feels valued, respected and motivated.

As a Trust, we are grounded in promoting Leadership, sharing a moral and ethical purpose to improve the lives of others and make a lasting difference for our learners and communities. And we embrace Transformation, approaching change positively so that we can all become our best selves and do our best work.

These values guide every decision we make and every action we take. They are the foundation of our Trust and the reason we can offer such exceptional opportunities for our learners and staff. If you choose to join CELT, you will be part of a values-driven organisation where people are supported to grow, contribute, and thrive.

Reset Room Manager

Purpose of the role

To create a calm and controlled environment in the Reset Room, working with the School Behaviour Lead to establish effective and consistent behaviour protocols.

Culture

The post holder will demonstrate and actively promote the values of Cornwall Education Learning Trust at all times. They will work with professionalism, consistently aligning their conduct with the Trust's Code of Conduct. The post holder will be fully aware of, and comply with, all safeguarding, health and safety, confidentiality, and data protection policies, ensuring these are upheld in all aspects of their role. They will raise any safeguarding concerns promptly and appropriately in line with school procedures.

In carrying out their duties, the post holder will show patience, empathy, and discretion, particularly when handling sensitive information. They will also contribute positively to the wider school environment by remaining adaptable and willing to support broader aspects of school life.

Strategic purpose

The post holder will maintain the highest standards and expectations of students within the Reset Room, ensuring a calm and purposeful environment at all times. They will provide students with appropriate work that supports silent learning and aligns with the topics being covered in lessons.

They will manage uniform provision and address any uniform-related incidents reported through Classcharts, liaising with Key Stage Leaders and contacting home where appropriate. The post holder will generate weekly behaviour reports and share these routinely with key senior staff to inform action. They will support the Behaviour Lead with the tracking of individual students, analysis of trends, completion of risk assessments, and development of action plans.

The post holder will ensure that the Reset Room remains a professional, organised, and well-maintained environment, including the management of uniform stock and school equipment. They will also carry out behaviour-related administrative tasks, such as sending parental communications, updating staff, and making phone calls home where required.

They will manage after-school detentions, ensuring that students and parents are informed, and will liaise with the Head of Year regarding attendance. The post holder will work closely with the Behaviour Lead to contribute ideas and strategies aimed at continually improving behaviour across the school.

Where appropriate, they may work across the Trust and contribute to the delivery of CPD. They will lead student behaviour interventions and, when necessary, meet and liaise with parents alongside the wider pastoral team. The post holder will undertake all associated administrative duties and contribute positively to the overall ethos and aims of the school.

Reset Room Manager

General responsibilities applicable to all staff

The post holder will attend staff meetings and Trust-based INSET as required, contributing positively to professional learning and whole-school development. They will be fully aware of, and comply with, all Trust and school policies and procedures relating to child protection, health and safety, security, confidentiality, and data protection, and will report any concerns promptly to an appropriate person.

Note

This job description is illustrative of the general nature and level of responsibility of the work to be undertaken commensurate with the grade. It is not a comprehensive list of all the responsibilities, duties and tasks relating to the post. The postholder may be required to undertake such work as may be determined by their line manager from time to time, up to or at a level consistent with the main responsibilities of the job. This job description may be amended at any time in consultation with the postholder.

Cornwall Education Learning Trust is an equal opportunities employer and is also committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All offers of employment are subject to the satisfactory completion of safer recruitment checks and references including an enhanced DBS check.

Applying to CELT

We welcome applications via My New Term in the CELT Careers section of our website: www.celtrust.org.

If you would like to arrange a visit or discuss the role further, please contact Justine Kellow, Assistant Headteacher at jkellow@nt.celtrust.org

We want every candidate to know exactly what to expect from our recruitment process. All CELT application packs clearly set out key information : salary, interview dates, and application deadlines. All line managers involved in recruitment are trained to recognise and reduce bias, ensuring a fair and consistent experience for every applicant.

More information about our approach can be found in our Recruitment and Selection Policy via the trust website.

Safeguarding

Safeguarding is the golden thread through CELT - safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. We promote an open culture of learning and development where good practice is celebrated and mistakes are used to learn and improve practice and therefore outcomes for our learners.

A whole-school approach to safeguarding means listening to the voices of everyone in the school community. This includes learners as well as parents, carers and school staff.

Amy Daniels
Director of Inclusion

All offers of employment are conditional and subject to satisfactory pre-employment checks including receipt of original qualification documents, references, medical screening, proof of eligibility to work in the UK, Childcare Disqualification check and an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check.

Our vision is to build and nurture a talented, diverse team who are proud to deliver exceptional education across our Trust.

We believe in working together, treating everyone fairly, and always learning and growing. We are committed to creating a safe, inclusive, and supportive workplace where every colleague feels valued and inspired to do their best.

By investing in and caring for our people, we unlock their potential – enabling them to make a real difference to our schools, our learners and the communities we serve.

CEL T is committed to developing and empowering staff by ensuring that every colleague has the opportunity to thrive in their current role while being prepared for future opportunities.

Claire White
Headteacher

I feel privileged to have been part of SW100's cohort 2. I finished the year a different leader to the one I was 12 months before and I've never been more committed to change in our system. It reinforced my belief that teaching truly is the best job in the world.

Andrew Gasiorowski
IS Manager

I joined Brannel School as an apprentice and now manage the information services team at Poltair School. Working at CEL T has enabled me to progress professionally and has provided opportunities for me to work on strategic projects across the Trust.

Rebecca Blizzard
Assistant Headteacher

From gaining valuable leadership experience as Head of Science I felt ready and supported to become an Assistant Headteacher. I value the range leadership opportunities at CEL T and the strong collaboration amongst colleagues and our family of schools.

Staff Entitlement

As a Trust we understand that we have a responsibility to create a future-focused team that is ready for change and able to support our development. Part of this future planning involves succession planning and dynamic talent management.

Talent management is crucial at both a strategic and an individual level. It is about the value that every individual brings to Cornwall Education Learning Trust. By understanding people's strengths and unique contributions, we can ensure that they receive the development they need to have the maximum impact in their current and future roles.

CELT CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE

At CELT, we believe inspiration should flow through our staff as much as our students. Great teaching comes from colleagues who are curious, ambitious and continually developing their practice. Professional learning isn't an add-on – it's part of who we are.

The CELT Centre of Excellence at Penrice Academy brings this vision to life. It offers a place to reflect, learn and plan next steps, supporting colleagues at every stage of their career. Through programmes such as Future Leaders, New and Aspiring Leaders, and the upcoming Flourishing Programme, the Centre provides clarity, connection and opportunity for all roles across CELT.

Our aim is simple: to help every colleague grow, feel valued and thrive. By investing in ourselves, we strengthen our culture and keep inspiration at the heart of our classrooms.

Living and Working in Cornwall

A Life That Feels Different—in the Best Way

Cornwall offers a rare blend of meaningful work, breathtaking surroundings and an exceptional quality of life. Our schools sit at the heart of proud, supportive communities where relationships matter and staff quickly feel part of something bigger.

Community

Cornwall's towns and villages are close-knit, welcoming and full of character. Families are deeply invested in their local schools, and the strong partnership between home and school is a defining feature of life here. When you join us, you're joining a place where people genuinely look out for one another.

Lifestyle

From beaches and rugged coastline to moorland and open countryside, Cornwall's natural beauty is always within easy reach. Shorter commutes and access to the outdoors help create a healthy balance between work and life—and the space to truly recharge.

Infrastructure

Cornwall is ambitious about its future. From major road improvements such as the upgraded A30 to enhanced digital connectivity and the convenience of Cornwall Airport Newquay, the region continues to invest to keep people connected and moving.

Families

Safe communities, excellent schools, and a huge range of activities make Cornwall an exceptional place to raise children. Whether it's beach days, outdoor adventures or creative arts, there's always something to inspire young minds.
