

King James
Academy Royston

King James Academy, Royston
Teacher of Music Part time (0.6 FTE)

Start date: Easter 2026

Salary - MPS

Closing date for applications: 7 January 2026

Interviews scheduled for: Week commencing 12 January 2026

We are actively seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, dedicated, dynamic and creative Teacher of Music to join our vibrant Performing Arts Department. You will be joining a friendly and supportive team and will be absolutely committed to raising the attainment of students of all abilities across the age range. Candidates should be willing to participate in the extensive extra – curricular life of the school and be passionate about helping students discover their musical potential and fostering a lifelong love of music.

If you're passionate about shaping the next generation of musicians, we'd love to hear from you!

Responsibilities:

Candidates should be:

- Enthusiastic and innovative
- Able to inspire and enthuse others
- Committed to ensuring all students of all abilities achieve their potential.
- A confident classroom practitioner able to teach Drama or Music in Key Stages 2,3 & 4

The school is looking for someone who:

- Is energetic and can motivate an animated group of pupils through fun and engaging lessons;
- Can promote the highest of academic outcomes for all children within the year group with clear focus on every child being able to progress, develop and succeed.

You will need to demonstrate that you:

- Are excited by teaching and strive to make learning irresistible through captivation and encouragement;
- Are well-organised and efficient;
- Have high expectations of behaviour and achievement resulting in good outcomes for children;
- Have a secure knowledge of how to cater for all educational needs;
- Commit yourself through effort and teamwork;
- Are solution driven and resilient;
- Are reflective of their own practice and responds positively to evaluation;

King James
Academy Royston

King James Academy Royston can offer you:

- Highly motivated and well behaved children in a school that is warm and welcoming;
- An exciting curriculum where creativity and real purposeful learning is key;
- Staff who demonstrate a truly collaborative approach to learning and teaching;
- High calibre support staff;
- A motivated, pro-active and supportive Senior Leadership Team and Governing Body who have a clear vision for the future direction and onward growth of the school;
- A supportive local community with keen parents who are supportive of the home-school agreement;
- A commitment to continuing your Professional Development and opportunities to further develop yourself professionally;

Further benefits include;

- Access to high quality professional development as part of the School Development Programme (The Diamond Learning Partnership Trust);
- Opportunities to train/work with other schools within the Diamond Learning Partnership Trust to share best practice and resources;
- Centrally-run services that reduce time-consuming administrative tasks so teachers can concentrate on educational performance.

King James Academy Royston is part of the Diamond Learning Partnership Trust, a charitable multi-academy trust (MAT) specialising in the primary sector. We are building a thriving community of schools that succeed on behalf of their children. The Family of Academies within the Trust currently incorporates two hubs; St Neots and Fenland.

Please visit our website: <https://www.kjar.org.uk> for further information.

If you would like to discuss the role or visit the Academy before applying, we would be delighted to welcome you. To make an appointment please contact Mrs T Sell t.sell@kjar.org.uk

King James Academy Royston is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS check.