Kingston Educational Trust

Background to the Trust

Kingston Educational Trust is a partnership between Kingston University, Kingston College and Royal Borough of Kingston. Kingston Educational Trust was originally set up as a stand-alone trust prior to being granted Multi Academy Trust status in early 2022. In 2015 The Kingston Academy became the first school set up by KET with Fern Hill Primary School joining KET in January 2022.

KET is open to any possibilities to contribute to the educational landscape within its area of operation and to seek out ways in which it might support its local communities. Whilst not seeking to become a large multi-academy trust, KET welcomes opportunities to work with other schools locally in any way that adds value to their shared educational provision.

KET's members (KU, KC, RBK) provide the trust with a range of very exciting possibilities. Since TKA opened its doors in 2015, KET partners have provided a wealth of special opportunities and experiences for both staff and pupils. Examples include:

- Student Ambassadors and lecturers from both the College and University working alongside pupils and staff in a range of curriculum areas such as Science, Art, Music, Sport, Maths and Drama;
- Access to high quality facilities such as the Arthur Cotterell Theatre at Kingston College and the Rose Theatre through our association with Kingston University;
- Unique access to staff development and training opportunities at Masters and EdD level.

KET is seeking to develop these practical links with its partners further as it grows.
