

Job Title:	Teacher of History
Location	Classroom Teacher
Reporting to	Head of Humanities and PSHE and Instructional Coach
Hours	Full Time
Salary	MPS/UPS
Role Purpose	At King's Group Academies, the Teacher role is dedicated to delivering high-quality teaching that places students at the centre of all decisions, enabling them to achieve strong academic outcomes and develop as confident, respectful, and resilient individuals. Teachers are expected to act with honesty, taking responsibility for their practice through reflection, open communication, and accountability, and to build trusting, respectful relationships with students, colleagues, and stakeholders. Through faith, teachers demonstrate compassion, collaboration, and a positive growth mindset, contributing to a supportive professional culture where colleagues feel valued and encouraged to improve. Teachers work collaboratively to share ideas, support others, and uphold high standards of professional respect across the Trust. With courage, teachers embrace change, engage constructively with feedback, and commit to continuous professional learning. They contribute to an inclusive environment, challenge practices that do not uphold dignity and respect, and, where appropriate, role-model behaviours that inspire others and strengthen the Trust's culture and values.
Main Responsibilities
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Set high expectations which inspire, motivate, and challenge all students, promoting positive attitudes to learning and high standards of behaviour. • Promote good progress and outcomes by planning learning that builds on students' prior knowledge, setting clear learning goals, and supporting students to reflect on and take responsibility for their own learning. • Demonstrate secure subject and curriculum knowledge, keeping up to date with developments in the subject and wider curriculum, and presenting content clearly and accurately.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Plan and teach well-structured lessons that engage students, make effective use of time, and promote a love of learning through purposeful and challenging activities. ● Adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all students, including those with SEND, EAL, high prior attainment, and those requiring additional support. ● Make accurate and productive use of assessment to monitor progress, provide clear and constructive feedback, and inform future planning and intervention. ● Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a safe, respectful, and positive learning environment, in line with the school's behaviour policy. ● Fulfil wider professional responsibilities by contributing to the life of the school, working collaboratively with colleagues, engaging with parents/carers, and supporting school improvement priorities. ● Demonstrate high standards of professional conduct and integrity, acting with honesty, respect, and accountability, and maintaining appropriate professional relationships at all times. ● Engage in continuous professional development, reflecting on practice, responding positively to feedback, and striving to improve teaching and learning for all students.
