WELCOME

The Oldham Academy North is a high-performing school with strong values, high standards, and a clear commitment to excellence. As Headteacher, I'm honoured to lead such a talented and dedicated team focused on helping every student thrive - academically and personally.

My focus is on sustaining high expectations, strengthening our culture of aspiration, and ensuring every student achieves their best - academically and personally.

I am passionate about a rigorous, broad curriculum that challenges pupils, supports personal development, and prepares them for a changing world. I also believe in clear, consistent expectations around behaviour, work ethic, and mutual respect, creating a positive culture where learning can flourish.

Strong partnerships with parents and carers are vital. Working together to ensure every pupil is supported to succeed, contribute positively to society, and leave TOAN ready to follow their dreams.

Staff at TOAN are part of a supportive, ambitious culture that values collaboration, consistency, and professional growth. With a broad curriculum, strong community links, and a shared belief in potential, TOAN is an inspiring place to build your career.

The Oldham Academy North (TOAN), established in 2010 and part of the E ACT Trust, is a mixed-gender secondary school for students aged 11–16 located in Royton, Oldham, Greater Manchester. With around 1,240 pupils, including nearly half eligible for free school meals, TOAN serves a richly diverse community. The school was recently re inspected by Ofsted in June 2025: it praised pupils’ “exemplary behaviour,” respectfulness, strong relationships, and unrelenting commitment to excellence in a secure and supportive culture. TOAN delivers a broad, ambitious curriculum that supports academic challenge, personal development, and social growth, enabling students to thrive in a demanding world.

› Our Culture

TOAN promotes a culture grounded in Trust, Endurance, Autonomy & Mastery, its core motto and guiding values. The academy community emphasises high expectations for all, celebrating positive relationships and student responsibility in a calm and respectful school environment. Pastoral care is a key strength: staff support ensures students feel safe, welcomed, and ready to engage fully in learning and co-curricular activities. Inclusivity is at the heart of academy life, ensuring every pupil—regardless of background—can access opportunity and strive toward personal excellence.

› Our Benefits

Joining TOAN means working in a high aspiration school within the E ACT network, offering robust professional development, peer collaboration, and shared best practice across academies. Staff benefit from a well-resourced environment, including modern facilities such as a new humanities block, lecture theatre, and sports infrastructure (e.g. sports hall and 3G pitch). Employees experience a people-centred culture where high standards are matched with support, respect, and inclusion—aligned with the academy's values and E ACT's ethos of staff wellbeing and community impact.

› Values, Ethos and how we work in the Trust?

TOAN's ethos centres on Trust, Endurance, Autonomy & Mastery, promoting resilience, independence, and ambition in every learner. As part of E ACT, the academy follows the Trust's mission of Opening Minds, Opening Doors, ensuring backgrounds do not limit future opportunities. The Trust supports consistently strong leadership, high quality teaching standards, and robust governance across its 38 academies. TOAN benefits from shared policies, curriculum frameworks, staff training, and wellbeing schemes, creating cohesion and excellence while retaining a distinct identity rooted in community engagement and ambition.
