

English Faculty

The English Faculty comprises an enthusiastic, supportive and collaborative group of ten teachers, committed to providing the best experience and opportunities for all of our students. We work together to address school based priorities but have a strong sense of our own identity and a clear direction.

In Key Stage 3, we teach seven one hour lessons per fortnight to our Year 7, 8 and 9 students, who are set in mixed ability classes. In addition, Years 7 and 8 have a one hour Reading for Pleasure lesson each cycle. Our Key Stage 4 students all study for both English Language and English Literature GCSE and enjoy eight hours of English a fortnight (nine hours in Year 11). At Key Stage 4 we are trialling two single sex groups to aid our mission at narrowing our gender gap, along with middle banded sets. We also offer Film Studies at GCSE level which has had phenomenal success and we are looking to expand this and include Media studies soon. At Key Stage 5 we offer two subjects: English Literature and Film Studies, all of which have eight hours of lessons a fortnight.

As a curriculum area, we have complete schemes of work for each unit to ensure lesson consistency. Our Key Stage 3 schemes have been fully rewritten, to provide a varied and enjoyable curriculum with clear routes for progress, but with the flexibility to adapt to individual teachers' and classes' needs.

Our aspiration is that every child leaves our classrooms with a love of language and reading across the ability range and an empowering command of the written and spoken word. We are well resourced and all of our teaching rooms have electronic projectors and interactive whiteboards. We have invested heavily in new class readers for our Reading for Pleasure lessons.

We have a strong team ethos and believe in working collaboratively, sharing ideas and supporting each other to achieve great things, and see this as the key to further developing effective teaching and learning strategies.
