We ensure the opportunities that are provided for them are relevant to their individual needs, with the balance of instilling not only the school learning powers, but UET Trust Pledges.

Our engaging and creative curriculum enables children to recognise and celebrate success, develop their own passion for learning and our team of professionals enable children to develop high aspirations which can be carried with them onto the next stage of their educational journey.

I believe that education is about the whole child and that active partnerships between home and school enable the develop of learning to be successful. Our relationships with parents, the community and other schools within Unity Education Trust is something we are proud of.
