SEND Responsibilities

All teachers are teachers of students with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND). As such, teachers are expected to uphold inclusive practices and ensure that all students, regardless of need, are supported to achieve their full potential.

Inclusive Planning and Preparation

- Plan lessons that are accessible and inclusive, taking account of the diverse needs of learners, including those with SEND.
- Differentiate tasks, resources, and outcomes to ensure all students can engage meaningfully with the curriculum.
- Use information from EHCPs, pupil profiles, and support plans to inform lesson planning and classroom strategies.

High-Quality Teaching and Learning

- Deliver adaptive teaching that responds to the needs of students with SEND, using strategies such as scaffolding, modelling, and visual supports.
- Create a positive and supportive classroom environment that promotes independence, confidence, and resilience.
- Use a range of assessment methods to monitor progress and adjust teaching accordingly.

Collaboration and Communication

- Work closely with the SENDCO, Teaching Assistants, and other support staff to implement targeted interventions and in-class support.
- Communicate effectively with parents/carers regarding the progress and needs of students with SEND.
- Participate in review meetings for students with EHCPs and contribute to the development of support strategies.

Monitoring and Record-Keeping

- Track and record the progress of SEND students, identifying any barriers to learning and taking appropriate action.
- Maintain accurate records of interventions, adaptations, and outcomes for students with SEND.
- Provide feedback to the SENDCO/Assistant SENDCOs on the effectiveness of support strategies.

SEND Responsibilities (contd.)

Professional Development

- Engage in ongoing professional development related to SEND, including training on specific needs such as autism, dyslexia, ADHD, and SEMH.
- Reflect on and improve inclusive teaching practices through collaboration, peer observation, and feedback.
- Stay informed about current legislation, guidance, and best practice in SEND education.
