Deputy Headteacher Job Description

The school has been designated by the Secretary of State as a school with a religious character. Its instrument of government states that it is part of the Catholic Church and is to be conducted as a Catholic school in accordance with canon law, the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church and the trust deed of the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle. At all times the school is to serve as a witness to the Catholic Faith in Our Lord Jesus Christ. The role of Deputy Headteacher³ therefore requires a practising Catholic who can show by example and from experience that he or she will work with the Headteacher to ensure that the school is distinctively Catholic in all its aspects.

This appointment is with the board of Directors under the terms of the Catholic Education Service contract signed with the board as employers. It is subject to the current conditions of service for Deputy Headteachers contained in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document and other current education and employment legislation. In carrying out his/her duties the Deputy Headteacher shall consult with the Headteacher and, when appropriate, with the board, the Diocese, the local authority, the staff of the school, the parents of its pupils, the parish(es) served by the school and other local Catholic schools, particularly where collaboration or federation is being developed.

This job description is based on the key areas identified in the Headteachers' Standards published by the Department for Education (2020). It recognises the role of the Deputy Headteacher in sharing responsibility for the leadership of the school.

Where specific responsibilities have been agreed for the Deputy Headteacher for individual key areas, it is recommended that these be added to the list of main tasks and actions. Other specific tasks, e.g. teaching commitment, designated safeguarding officer, should be added as required.

The board and the Diocese acknowledge the importance of the role of the Catholic Deputy Headteacher and will actively offer long term support, encouragement, affirmation and realistic challenge to the successful candidate.

The board and the Diocese are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and vulnerable adults and the Headteacher must ensure that the highest priority is given to following the guidance and regulations to safeguard them. The successful candidate will be required to undergo an Enhanced check for Regulated Activity from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

The core purpose of the Deputy Headteacher is to assist the Headteacher to set and implement the strategic direction of the school and to provide professional leadership and management to drive achievement of high standards in all areas of the school's work, particularly in ensuring the provision of sustainable outstanding education through the preservation and development of its Catholic character.

The school's objectives relate to the provision of Catholic education and the school is part of the Catholic Church and, as such, is to be conducted as a Catholic school in accordance with canon law, the teachings of the Catholic Church and the trust deed of the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle. Therefore, the post of Deputy Headteacher must be filled by a practising Catholic who can show, by example and from experience, that he or she will ensure that the school is distinctively Catholic in all aspects.

Ethics and Professional Conduct

Catholic Deputy Headteachers are expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of principled and professional conduct inspired by Christ and His beatitudes and exemplified by the self-cultivation of virtues, those qualities of character fundamental to the Catholic tradition: faith, hope, love, justice, solidarity, temperance, fortitude and practical wisdom. Catholic Deputy Headteachers are expected to meet the teachers' standards and be responsible for providing the conditions in which teachers can fulfil them.

In addition, Catholic Deputy Headteachers uphold and demonstrate the Seven Principles of Public Life at all times. Known as the Nolan principles, these form the basis of the ethical standards expected of public office holders:

- ✓ Openness
- ✓ Objectivity
- ✓ Honesty

Catholic Deputy Headteachers support the Headteacher in their role as custodians of diocesan schools and as such embody the abundant hope the Church has placed in education. Catholic Deputy Headteachers also support the Headteacher with their task of human formation in conformity with Christ and Church teaching, and so uphold ecclesial and public trust in school leadership and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour.

Both within and outside school, Catholic Deputy Headteachers:

- ✓ Build relationships of mutual respect rooted in the belief that all are made in the image and likeness of God⁴ and at all times observe proper boundaries appropriate to their professional position.
- ✓ Show tolerance of and respect for the rights of others, recognising differences and respecting cultural diversity within contemporary Britain enabling each person to play their full part in building and sustaining the Common Good.
- ✓ Uphold fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs understanding that such values are rooted in the Catholic understanding of dialogue and the Church's Social Teaching⁶.
- ✓ Ensure that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit their position, pupils' vulnerability or might lead pupils to break the law, but are always orientated to the service of others in light of the Gospel.

As leaders of their Catholic school community and profession, Deputy Headteachers:

- ✓ Serve in the best interests of the school's pupils.
- ✓ Conduct themselves in a manner compatible with their influential position in church and society by behaving ethically, fulfilling their professional responsibilities and modelling the virtues of a good citizen of the Kingdom of God.
