- Knowledge of educational changes, recent developments and key initiatives.
- Have the willingness to 'take risks' through 'creativity' within the classroom.
- Have the confidence and desire to teach across the age and ability range.
- Be able to use positive engagement techniques for learning in an environment of mutual respect, which allows pupils to feel safe, secure and promote their self-esteem.

Community Ethos

- Willingness to contribute to the wider-life of the school.
- Commitment to ensure visible presence across the school during duties to safeguard students.
- Act as a role model within the community by upholding and embracing the school's ethos and values.
- Ensure that school policies – including those relating to Race Equality, Equal Opportunities, Code of Conduct and Health and Safety – are adhered to.

Personal Qualities

- Promote our school values of ambition, reflection, and kindness.
- Approachable, with a strong moral compass.
- The ability to inspire, enthuse and motivate both students and colleagues.
- Potential and desire to take ownership of personal growth and development to ensure #betterneverstops.
- Excellent organisational and time management skills.
- Resilience and the ability to cope well under pressure.
- Ambition for oneself, students and the school community.
- Empathy with young people from all backgrounds, with a commitment to inclusion.
- Exceptional communication skills.
- A team player at all times, including during challenging circumstances.
- Embracing 'wellbeing' through a healthy work life balance.
- Willingness to take on board negative feedback and acting upon it positively and decisively.
- Emotional intelligence to deal with people sensitively and calmly to resolve potential conflict.

Additional Duties

- Take responsibility for one's own professional development.
- Play a full part in the life of the school community by supporting its distinctive aims and ethos, whilst encourage staff and students to follow this example.
- Engage actively in the Performance Management process.

The job description should be seen as enabling rather than restrictive and will be subject to regular review.
