Recruitment Information

The Governors are seeking to appoint a Headteacher of drive and compassion who will share the school's values of Respect, Responsibility, Equality of Opportunity, Cooperation and Generosity of Spirit. These values shape our culture, our commitment and our expectations that all our students will feel known, valued and supported and so best placed to achieve their full potential. This vacancy arises as the current Headteacher, Jennifer Gumbrell, will be retiring following her dedicated service to the school over the past nine years.

Enfield County School for Girls is an all-ability split-site school situated in the London Borough of Enfield with 1000 students on roll. We are a vibrant and diverse school, a microcosm of multi-cultural London with students and staff from a range of backgrounds, cultures and faiths. A forward-thinking school with a proud tradition of providing a high-quality education to young women of the area for over 100 years. Our students' academic progress consistently exceeds national averages, reflecting our unwavering commitment to excellence. We meet our commitment by equipping our students with the necessary academic and social skills as well as enabling the character development they need to succeed in life.

We are looking for an outstanding leader to take the school to the next stage of its development. The ideal candidate will have a proven record of raising standards, championing inclusion, strong strategic skills, and the vision to enable our continuous drive to transform the life chances of our students. We value diversity and want a school workforce which reflects the population of the Borough we serve. We encourage applications from all backgrounds.

Job Title: Headteacher, Enfield County School for Girls

School: Enfield County School for Girls (split-site)

Grade/Salary: Leadership Range L28–34 (£104,648–£120,566 including Outer London Allowance)

Responsible to: Governing Body

Start Date: 1st January 2027

Purpose of the Role

The Headteacher is the principal educational leader of Enfield County School for Girls and is accountable to the Governing Body for the strategic leadership, educational performance, culture and day-to-day management of the school.

The Headteacher will provide inspirational, values-based leadership, upholding and promoting the school's core values of Respect, Responsibility, Equality of Opportunity, Cooperation and Generosity of Spirit. These values underpin the school's culture and commitment to ensuring that every student feels known, valued and supported, enabling them to achieve their full potential academically, socially and personally.

Enfield County School for Girls is a highly successful all-ability split-site school serving over 1,000 students across the London Borough of Enfield. As a vibrant and diverse community reflecting the rich cultural heritage of London, the school is proud of its inclusive ethos, high aspirations and long-standing commitment to providing an exceptional education for young women. For more than 100 years, the school has played a significant role in transforming the life chances of generations of students through promoting academic excellence, strong pastoral care and personal development.

The Headteacher will build on the school's strong track record of achievement, where students consistently make progress above national averages, and will lead the next phase of the school's development. Working in partnership with governors, staff, students, their families and the wider community, the Headteacher will articulate and deliver a clear strategic vision that secures the highest standards of teaching, learning and overall well-being.

The successful candidate will be an outstanding leader with a proven record of raising standards, championing inclusion and driving sustainable school improvement. They will possess strong strategic and operational leadership skills, a commitment to equality and diversity, and the vision to ensure that every student is equipped with the academic knowledge, social skills and personal confidence needed to thrive in an ever-changing world.

The Headteacher will have overall responsibility for safeguarding, educational outcomes, staff development, financial management, statutory compliance and the effective leadership of the school's split-site provision. Through compassionate and ambitious leadership, they will continue to enhance the school's reputation and ensure that Enfield County School for Girls remains a school of choice for families across the local area.

The Headteacher will ensure that all duties are carried out in accordance with relevant statutory legislation, regulatory requirements, the school's instrument of governance and all applicable policies and procedures.

The role is undertaken within the framework of the Headteachers' Standards (2020) and School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document (STPCD).
