Radley College

Radley College is an independent full boarding school for boys aged 13-18 in Oxfordshire. Named Best Public School 2024 by Tatler, we are proud of our position as one of the world's leading schools, but it is our ability to unlock the potential in every boy and the sense of community here that makes us special.

Founded in 1847, Radley is proud of its tradition but is celebrated for academic excellence, innovation, and dynamism. We are fortunate to do all of this on a beautiful 800-acre campus with genuinely worldclass facilities a few miles from the thriving city of Oxford.

We aim to nurture intellectual entrepreneurs; boys who can use their strong academic understanding to solve real-world problems. Exam results matter and our excellent A-Level and GCSE results evidence this. But we know that life doesn't have a syllabus, so we work hard to equip boys with the characteristics, life skills and values that will help them thrive in the workplace and in life.

Beyond the classroom, opportunities are limitless. Our boys excel on the sports field, in the concert hall, on stage and as part of our partnerships programme. Community is the central pillar of our ethos. All our boys meet in Chapel five days a week and we eat centrally, which helps to foster a sense of connection across the College

The Department

Music is at the heart of life at Radley College. The full school sings together (brilliantly!) almost every day in Chapel and, with three concerts, 30 rehearsals and close to 600 music lessons every week, each day is enriched by the joy of live performance, led by a world-class team of 50 visiting music teachers. Alongside orchestras, choirs and chamber ensembles, we have our own record label and host regular jam nights for rock bands, DJs and producers. It is a place of energy and camaraderie, with boys from every year group, from advanced musicians to those at the start of their musical journeys, making music together at every available moment.

In January 2026, a major new music school building opened with a 300-seat concert hall, more intimate recital room, music recording studio, Song Room, four classrooms, and more than 20 dedicated teaching and practice rooms. With unprecedented numbers of boys having instrumental lessons, it is an exciting time to join the Radley College music team.

The Role

We are looking for a dedicated, experienced, and inspirational flute teacher to join a distinguished team of woodwind teachers, to teach 8 pupils from April 2026. There is also the opportunity for additional ensemble coaching if desired.

As well as knowledge of teaching strategies, teaching repertoire and adaptability to the individual, the successful applicant will show an active interest and insight into current instrumental teaching, research and development, and in pursuing their own professional development as an instrumental teacher. Most importantly, they will be committed to ensuring every boy makes progress and develops a love of music, whether they are a beginner or a musician with many years' experience.

In general, the role of a Visiting Music Teacher at Radley is defined as:

- the teaching, progress and development of each individual student within their specialism;
- designing a curriculum for each pupil based upon a shared goal;
- helping the pupil to achieve this by their professional help and expertise;
- encouraging pupils to take advantage of further opportunities, whether in ensemble music, competitions and wider musical development at school, or through courses, ensembles and competitions externally;
- being imaginative in ensuring that all boys are exposed to the experience of live performance;
- keeping records of a pupil's instrumental progress and up to date with all documentation;
- providing clear and helpful reports to parents at the end of each term;
- keeping abreast of current developments in instrumental teaching;
- working with the Head of Section to attract future music scholars.
