Role Summary

This role focuses on supporting student behaviour, attendance, and engagement through consistent communication, high standards, and proactive support. Staff are expected to pre-emptively support students through responsibility conversations and support plan check-ins; overcommunicating the rules, the routines and the why, so all students understand them clearly. Attendance actions include daily telephone calls and meetings in response to student absence. Effective communication with parents is essential to the role, as is the regular praise and encouragement of students. The PCO will respond to day to day matters to support the school priority: all students behave well, respond well and interact well. Attendance at calendared Celebration Events and high profile school events is also needed.

What you will be doing

Build Knowledge

- Participate in professional development to stay current with best practice.
- Maintain a comprehensive understanding of student behaviour and attendance strategies and any related barriers.
- Keep current with legislation, guidance, and initiatives to support student safeguarding and well-being.
- Know the EHCP students and students receiving reading intervention.
- Know the Top 10 pre-emptive support measures.

Build Trust

- Recognise personal strengths to effectively collaborate, advise and support students, parents, and staff.
- Establish strong relationships with teaching staff to support positive student behaviour and attendance improvement.
- Develop rapport with students and families through consistent communication, fostering a supportive environment.
- Collaborate with parents and external professionals to ensure students receive the necessary support.
- Respond to parental contact.
- Conduct home visits.
- Responsibility conversations and check-ins in Triage / Reflection.
- Reintegration conversations with students.
- Praise and encourage students, including phone calls home.
- Attend calendared celebration events and high-profile school events.

What you will be doing

Prioritization

- Pre-emptively support students through responsibility conversations and check-ins.
- Attendance actions: telephone calls, meetings, and follow-up for student absence.
- Respond to the day to day needs of students.
- Graduated responses: complete for approx. 4-6 students.
- Ensure safeguarding and bullying actions are followed up.
- Record and monitor safeguarding concerns to inform timely and effective interventions

Clarity and Energy

- Support high standards of behaviour, attendance and uniform.
- Over-communicate the rules, routines, and the reasons so all students understand clearly.
- Respond to day-to-day matters to support the school priority: all students behave well, respond well, and interact well.
- Apply problem-solving and critical thinking skills to address challenges in an unbiased manner.
- Convey a clear, energetic commitment to improving attendance and student engagement.
- Facilitate effective communication among students, parents, staff, and support teams to foster an inclusive environment.

Follow Up

- Follow support plans and have check-ins with students.
- Attend plan actions.
- Follow up on day-to-day incidents where investigation/evidence is needed.
- Safeguarding follow-up (My Concern tasks).
- Respond to parent/carer communication and maintain a record.
- Maintain regular communication with external agencies to ensure timely intervention and continued support

How you will be doing it

Dream Big

- Deliver value opportunities for world class education for all students

Take Responsibility

- To maintain confidentiality of information acquired in the course of undertaking duties for the department.
- Ensure Health and Safety and Safeguarding are at the centre of your approach.
- Take accountability for your own development and aspire to deliver the very best practice across all areas of your role.
- To attend staff meetings and school-based CPD days as required.

Be Kind

- To encourage acceptance and inclusion of all students.
- Support positive strategies for promoting equality and for challenging racial and other prejudice.

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified. Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description. You could reasonably be asked to work out of our partner sites to support where required.

Qualifications

- Must have excellent levels of literacy and numeracy (GCSE grade A-C/5-9 or equivalent).
- Bachelor's degree in education, social work or a related field is preferred but not required.

Experience

- Working with pupils in a school environment
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to build relationships and display empathy and understanding
- Work well as part of a team and be able to motivate themselves for independent, proactive work
- Confident with various IT programmes and regular use of IT in the course of the role
- Strong organisational and problem solving skills
- Experience of supporting/monitoring behaviour as part of pastoral provision would be preferred but is not essential
- Experience working with students with diverse backgrounds and learning needs would be an advantage
- Skilled in utilising technology and educational software

Desirable

- Supporting/monitoring attendance as part of pastoral provision
- Working with students with diverse backgrounds and learning needs

How to Apply

If you are passionate about our values and dedicated to making a meaningful impact on education, we invite you to apply. Please complete the application form on My New Term and tell us about how you connect with our values of "dream big, take responsibility, and be kind" and what you feel you can contribute to our team and our goal to deliver world class education.
