Are you an experienced leader with a determination to become a strong and effective Deputy Head Teacher?

Are you passionate about education and committed to making every day count for children across Flying High?

Flying High Partnership is seeking a dynamic and dedicated individual to join our team as a Deputy Head Teacher. This role is appointed centrally by Flying High and initially deployed to The Flying High Academy Ladybrook. This represents a great opportunity to join The Flying High Academy Ladybrook on their continued journey of improvement, whilst being part of a strong partnership. At Flying High, we aim to notice and nurture the talent across our schools and are committed to investing in you, providing opportunities and support to enable you to flourish in the role.

Flying High Partnership is a Multi Academy Trust of 35 primary schools across Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire, with ambitions for further growth. Flying High Partnership has a significant track record of success, recognised nationally as one of the highest performing primary Multi Academy Trusts. Collectively we aim to impact social change by inspiring our communities and empowering our children. At the heart of our success is a commitment to working together to deliver the very best for our children and to enable each member of staff to maximise their potential.

The Flying High Academy Ladybrook is a warm, welcoming community at the heart of the Ladybrook Estate. We're proud of our inclusive ethos, strong relationships and commitment to putting children first. As Deputy Head, you'll be joining a dedicated and forward-thinking team who care deeply about making a difference. We're looking for someone who aligns with our culture, brings energy and integrity to leadership and is ready to help shape the next chapter of our school's journey. If you're passionate about education and want to work somewhere where your ideas and leadership will truly matter, we'd love to hear from you.

As Deputy Head Teacher you will work in partnership with the Head Teacher and the central team to ensure that your school flourishes as a unique, exceptional, and sustainable school that inspires the community and empowers every child. At the heart of Flying High is growing our people, and through this role you will receive considerable support and investment to ultimately realise your ambition to become a Head Teacher.
