

Job Description

Job Title: Curriculum Leader of Design Technology

Reporting to: Deputy Headteacher

Job Purpose

The Curriculum Leader will be responsible for the planning, delivery, and assessment of the lessons within the department. They will lead the curriculum design and ensure that teachers successfully implement it through high standards of teaching and learning and achievement to ensure that students make progress, are nurtured, and supported to achieve their personal best. The quality of education students receive will be strong. Food Technology is a separate department to Design Technology.

The duties detailed in this job description provide a summary of the main areas of responsibility and should be read in association with the current Teachers' Pay and Conditions document, and in the context of professional standards for teachers.

Key Responsibilities

- Plan, implement and review an appropriate curriculum within the framework of the National Curriculum and statutory requirements which is broad and balanced, relevant, and differentiated, which also incorporates whole-school policies and cross-curricular areas.
- Keep up to date with educational reforms to ensure that the curriculum and qualifications offered are fit for purpose to allow our students to achieve their high aspirations.
- Create departmental policies on such matters as methodology, marking and assessment, reporting, homework, etc. in-line with whole-school policies.
- Develop schemes of work which are inspiring for learners and teachers alike and prepares students thoroughly for academic success at GCSE and A-Level (where appropriate).
- Reflect, review, and evaluate each academic year to maintain positive progress.
- Promote excellence in teaching and learning within the department to ensure all students develop their potential.
- Encourage a collegiate approach to teaching and learning within the department through the department's CPD programme.
- Catch success, carry out drop-ins and other departmental monitoring and review processes as part of on-going quality assurance and evaluation.
- Observe, mentor, and take responsibility for the Performance Management of staff to help nurture, grow and develop.
- Analyse progress and attainment data to make data driven changes to curriculum design, student intervention and set changes.
- Implement appropriate systems to track students' progress to inform and improve the effectiveness of teaching and learning so that outcomes are positive.
- Facilitate extracurricular opportunities for students through subject specific enrichment activities.
- Utilise the analysis of data – especially comparative data in relation to pupil outcomes – to drive improvements in the quality of education offered.
- Ensure that individual student progress is regularly assessed, recorded, reported, and used to inform responsive teaching strategies.
- Set personal targets and take pride and responsibility for one's continuous professional development.
- Ensure that training needs within the department are identified, appropriately met, and that all members of the department are active in their own personal and continuous professional development.

Teaching and Learning:

- Be a reflective classroom practitioner who strives to continuously develop their craft.
- Have evidence of excellent subject and curriculum knowledge.
- Have a sound understanding of teaching and learning pedagogy.
- Knowledge of educational changes, recent developments and key initiatives.
- Have the willingness to 'take risks' through 'creativity' within the classroom.
- Have the confidence and desire to teach across the age and ability range.
- Be able to use positive engagement techniques for learning in an environment of mutual respect, which allows pupils to feel safe, secure and promote their self-esteem.

Community Ethos

- Willingness to contribute to the wider-life of the school.
- Commitment to ensure visible presence across the school during duties to safeguard students.
- Act as a role model within the community by upholding and embracing the school's ethos and values.
- Ensure that school policies – including those relating to Race Equality, Equal Opportunities, Code of Conduct and Health and Safety – are adhered to.

Personal Qualities

- Promote our school values of ambition, reflection, and kindness.
- Approachable, with a strong moral compass.
- The ability to inspire, enthuse and motivate both students and colleagues.
- Potential and desire to take ownership of personal growth and development to ensure #betterneverstops.
- Excellent organisational and time management skills.
- Resilience and the ability to cope well under pressure.
- Ambition for oneself, students and the school community.
- Empathy with young people from all backgrounds, with a commitment to inclusion.
- Exceptional communication skills.
- A team player at all times, including during challenging circumstances.
- Embracing 'wellbeing' through a healthy work life balance.
- Willingness to take on board negative feedback and acting upon it positively and decisively.
- Emotional intelligence to deal with people sensitively and calmly to resolve potential conflict.

Additional Duties

- Take responsibility for one's own professional development.
- Play a full part in the life of the school community by supporting its distinctive aims and ethos, whilst encourage staff and students to follow this example.
- Engage actively in the Performance Management process.

The job description should be seen as enabling rather than restrictive and will be subject to regular review.
