Pickhurst Infant Academy

Welcome to Pickhurst Infant Academy, nestled in the leafy suburb of West Wickham, Bromley. As a four-form entry school with a strong community spirit, we're passionate about meeting every child's needs through exceptional, personalised teaching. Rated 'Outstanding' by Ofsted in January 2022, we take pride in our high standards and warm, welcoming environment.

Wellbeing is at our core. Our extensive grounds include a Forest School, allotments, a pond, and a sensory garden. With well-equipped outdoor classrooms for Reception and Year 1, plus sensory and nurture rooms for emotional support, every child has space to thrive. Even our therapy dog, Bruno, is here to offer a comforting paw!

At Pickhurst, learning is a joy. Our children achieve above national averages, benefiting from enriching experiences like after-school clubs, expert-led workshops, outdoor adventures, and tailored support to stretch and challenge them.

We're proud to foster a strong sense of community, working closely with parents and celebrating equality and diversity in all its forms.

Come and see what makes Pickhurst such a happy, thriving place to learn and grow—we'd love to meet you!

Midday Supervisor - Job Description

Main Purpose of the Role:

In your role as a Midday Supervisor, you will supervise pupils in the dining hall and playground areas, ensuring a safe and enjoyable lunchtime for all. You should be caring, hardworking, and open to training, with a genuine love for working with children.

Organisation:

- Take charge of supervising pupils in designated areas.
- Assist with daily decisions on pupil use areas, such as during wet lunchtimes.

Resources:

- Utilise basic first aid equipment as needed.
- Be familiar with the safe use of outdoor equipment.

Responsibilities:

- Oversee pupil conduct, ensuring safe and orderly behaviour inside and outside the school building.
- Promote and enforce school rules regarding allowed games and health and safety procedures.
- Assist pupils in the dining area or other play areas as needed.
- Ensure all children have access to a variety of games and activities, demonstrating new ones when appropriate.
- Handle minor incidents and disputes, referring serious incidents to the Senior Lunchtime Coordinator/SLT or nominated supervisor.
- Administer first aid as required, following health and safety guidelines, and undertake relevant training such as basic first aid.
- Clean up spillages or debris around dining and play areas to maintain good order, discipline, and safety.
- Support diversity and ensure equal opportunities for all.
- Comply with policies and procedures related to child protection, health, safety, security, and confidentiality, reporting all concerns to the appropriate person.
- Contribute to the overall ethos, work, and aims of the school.
- Appreciate and support the roles of other professionals.
- Attend and participate in relevant meetings as required.
- Participate in training, other learning activities, and performance development as needed.
- Undertake any other duties commensurate with the level of the post to ensure the efficient and effective running of the department/section.

Health and Safety:

- Be mindful of your responsibility for your own health, safety, and welfare, as well as that of others who may be affected by your actions or inactions.
- Collaborate with the employer on all matters related to health, safety, and welfare.

Continuing Professional Development:

- Participate in the Performance Management Scheme.
- Undertake any necessary professional development as identified.

Midday Supervisor - Job Description

Additional Points:

- While every effort has been made to outline the main duties and responsibilities of the post, not every individual task may be specified.
- All staff must comply with academy and Trust policies.
- Employees are expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not detailed in this job description.
- The Trust will make reasonable adjustments to the job and working environment to enable access to employment opportunities for disabled job applicants or continued employment for any employee who develops a disabling condition.
- The job description may be subject to amendment or modification should circumstances change. Any changes will be discussed with you initially. If a disagreement arises, you will have the opportunity to resolve the matter with your line manager, and you may be accompanied by a Trade Union representative if you wish.

Special Conditions of Service

This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (1974). The amendments to the Exceptions order 1975 (2013 & 2020) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Ministry of Justice website. The central offices are based in a school and candidates are required to comply with Trust safeguarding and DBS procedures.

Policies and Procedures

Ensure, comply and be aware of all school policies and procedures in relation to all aspects of the school's management, teaching and learning.

Contacts and Relationships

Provide the specified standard and level of service that is expected, noting and passing on any shortfalls or potential improvements.

Maintain high professional standards of attendance, punctuality, appearance, conduct and positive courteous relations with pupils, parents/carers and colleagues.

Equalities

Ensure the school's equal opportunities policies are implemented and that statutory responsibilities regarding individuals and service delivery are met.

Data Protection

Nexus Education Schools Trust (NEST) is committed to protecting your privacy when you apply for a position with us. We ensure your information is kept safe and used in a reasonable and ethical manner. As the data controller, NEST manages how your personal information is processed and for what purposes. All staff must maintain confidentiality regarding pupils, staff, and parent information. For more details, please refer to our Data Protection Policy at www.nestschools.org

This job description may be amended at any time after discussion with you.

Nexus Education Schools Trust

The application process

Nexus Education Schools Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people in its schools. We comply with the statutory legislative requirements and guidance, including 'Keeping Children Safe in Education', and we follow a rigorous selection process which seeks to discourage and screen out unsuitable applicants.

Safer Recruitment

Our job descriptions and person specifications confirm individual responsibility for safeguarding the welfare and well-being of children and young people. All posts are subject to Enhanced Disclosure and Barring (DBS) checks.

Application Stage

We require all applicants to complete our Application Form which seeks to elicit the information we require to undertake the shortlisting process and to assess the applicant's suitability for the post they have applied for. We do not accept CVs in place of a completed Application Form. We reserve the right to reject any applicant who has failed to fully complete our Application Form.

Shortlisting

Only those candidates who meet the criteria outlined in the person specification will be shortlisted. We carry out online and social media searches as part of our due diligence on shortlisted candidates. If we identify any of concern to us, then this will be raised and explored during the interview.

Interview

1. Shortlisted candidates will take part in an in-depth interview and selection process.
2. Employment references will be sought before an interview.
3. Candidates will be asked to complete a Self Declaration Form in respect of their criminal record and to return this prior to the interview.
4. Candidates will be asked to address any discrepancies, anomalies, or gaps in employment in the application form including their employment history. Candidates will be invited to discuss any disclosures in their self-declaration form and any queries we have arising from the information provided in their employment references and/or our online and social media searches.
5. Proof of right to work in the UK and any relevant qualifications must also be provided at the interview.

Appointment

An offer of employment is conditional upon us being satisfied with the outcomes of all the following checks:

- Verification of the candidate's identity.
- An Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service Certificate (DBS) including a Children's Barred List check
- An assessment of fitness to work to ensure that a candidate has the health and physical capacity for the job
- Overseas criminal record and overseas professional registration checks where a candidate has lived, worked or qualified overseas
- Verification that the candidate is not the subject of a prohibition order or section 128 direction made by the Secretary of State
- Compliant employment references
- Verification of qualifications and professional registrations relevant to the candidate's role
- Verification of the candidate's right to work in the UK
- Verification that candidates employed in reception classes, or wraparound care for children up to the age of 8, are not disqualified from working in these setting under the 2018 Childcare Disqualifications Regulations.

On appointment and annually thereafter, all colleagues are required to undertake Safeguarding training, Cyber Security training, GDPR training and to reaffirm and disclose any changes to their criminal record, and to read and confirm their adherence to Part 1 of Keeping Children Safe in Education, our child protection and safeguarding policy, behaviour policy and code of conduct (which includes our requirements in respect of ethical and professional standards and professional boundaries). All school based staff will be required to undertake first aid training.

Nexus Education Schools Trust

Our contracts of employment place an ongoing requirement on all colleagues to immediately notify us if they are the subject of a police investigation, are released under investigation, or receive a caution or conviction.

Recruitment of Offenders

All posts within NEST are, (by the reason of The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended) exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that all applicants for employment with the Trust must disclose all unspent cautions and convictions and all unprotected spent cautions and convictions. An explanation of when a spent conviction is unprotected is available on the Ministry of Justice website.

- If relevant information (whether concerning previous convictions or otherwise) is volunteered by an applicant during the recruitment process or obtained through a DBS check, we will consider the following factors before reaching a recruitment decision:
- whether the conviction of other matter revealed is relevant to the position in question;
- the seriousness of any offence or other matter revealed;
- the length of time since the offence or other matter occurred;
- whether the applicant has a pattern of offending behaviour or other relevant matters; and
- the circumstances surrounding the offence and the explanation(s) offered by the convicted person.

If the post involves regular contact with children, it is our normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of any of the following offences: murder, manslaughter, rape, other serious sexual offences, grievous bodily harm or other serious acts of violence, class A drug-related offences, robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud.

If the post involves access to money or budget responsibility, it is our normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of robbery, burglary, theft, deception, or fraud.

If the post involves some driving responsibilities, it is our normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted of dangerous driving or of an offence of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, within the last 10 years.

Probation

All new colleagues will be subject to the NEST probation procedure for four months. The probation procedure is to enable the assessment of a colleague's suitability for the job for which they have been employed, which includes the monitoring and review of their performance of their duties, skills, qualifications, and experience outlined in the job description and person specification and their suitability to work with children and young people.

Equal Opportunities

NEST recognises the value of, and seeks to achieve, a diverse workforce that includes people from all backgrounds. We take positive steps to create an employment culture in which people feel confident about being treated with fairness, dignity, and tolerance irrespective of their differences. This commitment extends beyond the relationship between the conduct of colleagues, potential colleagues, and the whole community. We are committed to the elimination of unlawful discrimination and the promotion of good relations between all.

General Data Protection Regulations

NEST is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. By signing a contract of employment, you understand that NEST, and/or agents appointed by the trust, process your personal data, including "special category personal data" as defined in the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), for the purposes of the operation, management, security and/or administration, as well as, complying with applicable laws, regulations, and procedures. The information you provide (except equality monitoring information) may be shared with partner organisations that provide services to NEST.
