

Teacher of English (maternity cover)
Full-time from December
MPS

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in BFS and taking the time to read the details of this exciting opportunity to join us as a Teacher of English.

BFS is a thriving oversubscribed school which has a successful Sixth Form of over 240 students. The school was founded in 2011 by a local group of parents who wanted a high performing school to serve the community of North-West Bristol. The school values of Community, Ambition and Opportunity are very important and we demonstrate them through our day to day work with young people. We are looking for staff to support us with these values and make a positive contribution to the life of the school.

You will join a strong and supportive team and a school that engages in regular and timely CPD.

Please spend some time reading our school website and newsletters to get a flavour of the vibrancy of BFS.

I look forward to hearing from you

Mr James Fernandes

Acting Headteacher

Introduction to Russell Education Trust

Background to the Trust

Russell Education Trust is a multi-academy trust comprising five secondary schools and one primary school spread across the south of England.

The Trust is a family of faith and community schools with distinctive individual identities. Underpinned by a shared commitment to respect, responsibility fairness and equality, Russell Education Trust schools work together to achieve their vision of providing all students with an outstanding education.

The Trust is driven by the strong moral purpose of knowing, valuing and developing every student and member of staff to ensure that their potential is realised, and their ambitions achieved.

Our schools

- Celebrate difference and diversity in an inclusive, socially responsible culture
- Deliver a broad, balanced, and ambitious curriculum: centred on the core subjects of English, mathematics and science supported by technology and computing complemented by humanities, languages, arts and vocational subjects
- Provide a rich education that develops students' minds, beliefs, characters, skills and interests
- Equip students with the knowledge and skills for success in the modern world through examination success and personal development
- Uphold high standards of behaviour, learning and equality of opportunity for all students
- Nurture and develop their staff, through day-to-day support, high quality continuing professional development, cross-Trust collaboration and networking, and opportunities for career progression
- Are rooted within their local communities and seek to serve their particular needs.

Russell Education Trust's Schools

Bristol Free School (established Sept 2011)

'Leaders are ambitious for all pupils. The curriculum is designed to build knowledge over time. It helps pupils remember what they learn. Leaders have ensured that the curriculum is engaging for pupils, and that it promotes diversity. Teaching focuses on what pupils need to know and do. Teachers have strong subject knowledge and are keen to share this with pupils. They know their pupils well and use this knowledge to help them learn.'

Ofsted 2022

Elmlea Infant & Junior Schools

'Pupils flourish at Elmlea Infant School. They achieve extremely well. Staff have high expectations for pupils' behaviour and conduct. Pupils feel safe and value the positive relationships they have with staff. Leaders are ambitious for what pupils with SEND can achieve.'

Ofsted 2023

Becket Keys

Becket Keys Church of England School (established Sept 2012)

'The headteacher's inspired leadership has quickly established a vibrant, orderly community which enables students to thrive. He ensures that a family atmosphere is fostered across the school in which all students feel cared for, and valued.'

Ofsted 2014

St Andrew the Apostle Greek Orthodox School (established 2015)

'Students are making strong progress in a range of subjects. They value the leadership opportunities open to them. Students also appreciate the support and care they receive.'

Ofsted 2018

Kings School Hove (established Sept 2013)

'Leaders have created a culture that extends far beyond the academic. Staff value each pupil and know them well. The provision for personal development is first class. It is promoted consistently across the school.'

Ofsted 2022

Turing House School (established Sept 2015)

'The school has many strengths. Leaders have established an open culture at the school where there is a clear sense of teamwork and community across staff and pupils alike. Everyone takes pride in the school. It is a welcoming and vibrant place.'
