Are you ready to play a key role in the further development of our thriving, multi-cultural secondary school? Our great students are at the heart of all we do. We have a dynamic and successful Humanities department with a desire to keep improving. Applications from ECT colleagues are welcome, our training has been rated as 'outstanding'.

We are looking for a creative and impactful colleague to:

- Inspire students in the classroom
- Join a strong and effective department and make learning R.S. exciting
- Make a strong all-round contribution to the climate and ethos of the school

Why Cressex?

- A supportive and dedicated community of staff and governors
- A family friendly school, making it easier for employees to balance work and life
- Teaching & Learning underpinned by the latest research
- A data-rich environment focused on raising standards for all
- Opportunities for Continued Professional Development
- A superb, state-of-the-art learning environment and well-resourced departments
- Staff gym onsite
- Friday afternoons reserved for staff planning, including working from home

We would welcome you for a visit to the school for an informal discussion/tour. Cressex Community School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The successful applicant will be subject to an enhanced DBS check. Shortlisted candidates should be aware that online searches (including social media) will be carried out as part of due diligence checks.

Please apply for this position by completing an application form and a letter explaining how your experience fits you for the post.

Application forms and further details can be downloaded from our website: www.cressex.org

Closing date: Monday 8th June 2026 12:00 midday

We reserve the right to appoint ahead of this date if a suitable candidate is found.

Interviews: shortly thereafter
