We require a caring, trustworthy and enthusiastic individual to join our hard-working and committed staff team.

You will nurture, inspire, challenge and motivate pupils, whilst implementing clear boundaries and routines. You will work alongside class teachers to support high quality lessons following our school curriculum and remain professional at all times. The role will require you to work in our KS1/KS2 classes with individual children or a small group. Experience of supporting children with SEND is desirable.

Hampsthwaite is part of Yorkshire Causeway Trust, a supportive and collaborative Multi-Academy Trust which believes in ‘ambition, learning and enrichment for all.’ Should you be successful in your application, we will offer you a warm, happy school where everyone is valued; an opportunity to work with an experienced and committed team and to take a role in a place of work that is determined to reach the highest of standards; a school that is forward thinking in terms of curriculum, teaching and learning; a school which enjoys strong links with the local community and above all, a work place that is committed to the wellbeing of all of its stakeholders.

If this sounds like you and a role that you would relish, please look carefully at the following materials and complete the application form.
