About the Role – Meet the Team

Gloucestershire College is recruiting a Lecturer in Business & Travel to teach and inspire learners aged 16–18 across subjects such as Business, Finance, Events and Marketing. You'll help students build skills for university, apprenticeships or employment through a mix of classroom learning and real industry experience. Working with employers and partners, you'll keep the curriculum up to date and provide opportunities like projects, placements and guest speakers. As part of the team, you'll deliver inclusive, high-quality teaching and may take on course leadership to support learner success.

About the Role – Duties and Responsibilities

In this role, you'll plan and deliver engaging, inclusive lessons that support learners' progress and independence. You'll use a range of teaching and assessment methods, creating a safe and positive learning environment while meeting individual needs. You'll keep accurate records, work closely with colleagues and contribute to quality processes. Ongoing professional development is encouraged to help you continue improving your practice and support learner success.

About the College – Our Expectations

- Take an active part in Professional Development Conversations (PDC)
- Engage with all relevant Health & Safety regulations and assist the College in the implementation of its own Health & Safety Policy
- Actively promote the College's Equality and Diversity Policy
- Actively promote the College's Safeguarding Policy and Practices
- Support the College's sustainability policies and recognise the shared responsibility of carrying out duties in a resource efficient way
- Participate in enrolment
- Participate constructively in college activities and to adopt a flexible approach to your work.
- Undertake a first-aid qualification and participate in the first aid rota, as required.

- Undertake any other relevant duties as specified by your line manager commensurate with the level of this post
