Exceptional Educational Experience

Dan Morrow
Trust Leader

Rich Baker
Deputy Trust Lead

Welcome

At Cornwall Education Learning Trust (CELT), our mission is clear: to provide every learner with an exceptional educational experience. One that enables them to thrive, achieve and succeed in life. We believe in a 100% mindset, that every learner, in every classroom, in every school, deserves the very best we can offer. For us, 100% means no compromise: no learner left behind, no community overlooked, and no opportunity wasted.

Our strategic goals reflect this ambition. We are committed to empowering and growing our people, building an ambitious all-through entitlement, forging exceptional relationships with our communities, transforming provision through meaningful partnerships, and leading an ethical, effective and innovative organisation. These are not just aspirations; they are promises that shape the way we work and the culture we are building together.

Joining CELT means becoming part of a values-driven trust where collaboration, innovation, and care for people are at the heart of all we do. If you share our 100% mindset, are passionate about education, and want to make a tangible difference to learners and communities across Cornwall, we would be delighted to welcome you to CELT.

Welcome from our Chair of Trustees

Our values are at the heart of everything we do. We believe in the power of Collaboration, building strong relationships and working together as one team to achieve our collective goals. We are committed to Empowerment, creating a culture where initiative, innovation and trust flourish, and where every individual feels valued, respected and motivated.

As a Trust, we are grounded in promoting Leadership, sharing a moral and ethical purpose to improve the lives of others and make a lasting difference for our learners and communities. And we embrace Transformation, approaching change positively so that we can all become our best selves and do our best work.

These values guide every decision we make and every action we take. They are the foundation of our Trust and the reason we can offer such exceptional opportunities for our learners and staff. If you choose to join CELT, you will be part of a values-driven organisation where people are supported to grow, contribute, and thrive.

ATTENDANCE OFFICER JOB DESCRIPTION

Purpose of role:

To provide a specialist service to help the school to raise achievement by improving school attendance and punctuality and to meet our attendance targets.

Principal Responsibilities:

The postholder will complete registers daily on SIMS and following up any absences. They will update the Attendance Tracker on a weekly basis, ensuring all new information and relevant comments are recorded. The postholder will review PN referrals and make referrals where necessary, as well as complete the attendance table for inclusion in the school newsletter.

The postholder will meet with parents where attendance is not improving following Letter 1, progressing to Letter 2 meetings alongside the Attendance Officer and Assistant Head. They will meet with parents where attendance is a concern and set targets through Attendance Clinic meetings with the Education Welfare Officer (EWO). The postholder will monitor whether attendance targets are met and issue follow-up letters to parents/carers accordingly.

The postholder will be responsible for preparing and sharing whole-school warning letter (PN) information for the newsletter and retaining printed evidence to support referrals. They will ensure whole-school warning letters are sent to all parents/carers via email and will maintain and update individual pupil attendance files with relevant information.

The postholder will conduct attendance reviews with the EWO for pupils below the 90% threshold and issuing under 90% attendance letters to parents/carers. They will lead Attendance Clinic meetings with the EWO and parents where attendance is a concern, setting clear targets, and will review progress against these targets, issuing follow-up communication as appropriate.

Other General Responsibilities:

The postholder will be required to attend staff meetings and Trust-based INSET as appropriate. They will take responsibility for their own continuous professional development, engaging in relevant training and development opportunities as required.

The postholder will work in accordance with the Trust's child protection policies and procedures, ensuring the safeguarding and promotion of the welfare of children and young people. They will be expected to raise any concerns relating to safeguarding that arise in the course of their duties.

The postholder will remain aware of and operate in line with all relevant Trust working practices, policies and procedures. They will also ensure compliance with all applicable rules, regulations and legislation, including the Trust's Equal Opportunities Policy, Code of Conduct, Disciplinary and Grievance Policies, and national requirements such as Health and Safety and Data Protection.

The postholder will maintain the highest levels of confidentiality at all times in relation to reports, records and personal data concerning staff and pupils, as well as any other sensitive information encountered in the course of their duties. This will be carried out in line with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulations.

The postholder will consistently demonstrate and promote the values of the Cornwall Education Learning Trust in all aspects of their work. They will work effectively with colleagues to ensure the needs of all pupils are met.

Note:

This job description is illustrative of the general nature and level of responsibility of the work to be undertaken commensurate with the grade. It is not a comprehensive list of all the responsibilities, duties and tasks relating to the post. The postholder may be required to undertake such work as may be determined by their line manager from time to time, up to or at a level consistent with the main responsibilities of the job. This job description may be amended at any time in consultation with the postholder.

Special Conditions of Employment:

Cornwall Education Learning Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. The postholder is required to follow all of the Trust's policies and procedures in relation to safeguarding at all times, and to adhere to the statutory guidance 'Keeping Children Safe in Education'. The postholder must take appropriate action in the event that they have concerns, or are made aware of the concerns of others, regarding the safety or well-being of children or young people.

Claire White
Headteacher

I feel privileged to have been part of SW100's cohort 2. I finished the year a different leader to the one I was 12 months before and I've never been more committed to change in our system. It reinforced my belief that teaching truly is the best job in the world.

Andrew Gasiorowski
IS Manager

I joined Brannel School as an apprentice and now manage the information services team at Poltair School. Working at CEL T has enabled me to progress professionally and has provided opportunities for me to work on strategic projects across the Trust.

Rebecca Blizzard
Assistant Headteacher

From gaining valuable leadership experience as Head of Science I felt ready and supported to become an Assistant Headteacher. I value the range leadership opportunities at CEL T and the strong collaboration amongst colleagues and our family of schools.

Staff Entitlement

As a Trust we understand that we have a responsibility to create a future-focused team that is ready for change and able to support our development. Part of this future planning involves succession planning and dynamic talent management.

Talent management is crucial at both a strategic and an individual level. It is about the value that every individual brings to Cornwall Education Learning Trust. By understanding people's strengths and unique contributions, we can ensure that they receive the development they need to have the maximum impact in their current and future roles.

CELT CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE

At CELT, we believe inspiration should flow through our staff as much as our students. Great teaching comes from colleagues who are curious, ambitious and continually developing their practice. Professional learning isn't an add-on – it's part of who we are.

The CELT Centre of Excellence at Penrice Academy brings this vision to life. It offers a place to reflect, learn and plan next steps, supporting colleagues at every stage of their career. Through programmes such as Future Leaders, New and Aspiring Leaders, and the upcoming Flourishing Programme, the Centre provides clarity, connection and opportunity for all roles across CELT.

Our aim is simple: to help every colleague grow, feel valued and thrive. By investing in ourselves, we strengthen our culture and keep inspiration at the heart of our classrooms.

Living and Working in Cornwall

A Life That Feels Different—in the Best Way

Cornwall offers a rare blend of meaningful work, breathtaking surroundings and an exceptional quality of life. Our schools sit at the heart of proud, supportive communities where relationships matter and staff quickly feel part of something bigger.

Community

Cornwall's towns and villages are close-knit, welcoming and full of character. Families are deeply invested in their local schools, and the strong partnership between home and school is a defining feature of life here. When you join us, you're joining a place where people genuinely look out for one another.

Lifestyle

From beaches and rugged coastline to moorland and open countryside, Cornwall's natural beauty is always within easy reach. Shorter commutes and access to the outdoors help create a healthy balance between work and life—and the space to truly recharge.

Infrastructure

Cornwall is ambitious about its future. From major road improvements such as the upgraded A30 to enhanced digital connectivity and the convenience of Cornwall Airport Newquay, the region continues to invest to keep people connected and moving.

Families

Safe communities, excellent schools, and a huge range of activities make Cornwall an exceptional place to raise children. Whether it's beach days, outdoor adventures or creative arts, there's always something to inspire young minds.
